QUOTES (NOT FOR WEAKLINGS)

WELCOME TO SURF MAN QUOTES COLLECTION.

NOT FOR EASILY OFFENDED PEOPLE!

This quotes and sayings collection was last updated on Friday, July 3rd, 2026 at 10:45 PM CST.

WARNING: This quotes collection is real and straight to the points. If you are easily offended, then this section is not for you, and honestly this entire publication is not published for everyone anyway. These quotes, sayings, rants, and short speeches cover healing from and avoiding narcissists and narcissism including narcissistic parents, shitty black culture, redefining what some call racism as an effective form of self-love and protection, not having any white guilt, learning how to unlove people who do not respect you, motivation, productivity, finding your inner strength, and standing on it so that you can be the strongest person you can possibly be. . . because your current and future self depends on these values.

Someone who collects quotes can be described in many positive ways. They are thoughtful and reflective. They like to pause and think deeply about life, ideas, and experiences. They have an appreciation for wisdom, and enjoy learning from other people's insights instead of trying to reinvent the wheel. They are attentive to language and nuance, noticing precise wording that captures complex feelings or truths. They value memory and meaning, using quotes to remember important lessons, emotions, or turning points. They are often introspective, using quotes as mirrors to better understand themselves and their values. They tend to be inspirational to others, because they can share just the right quote at the right time.

People tend to be emotionally sensitive or empathetic, resonating with words that express what others feel but can't easily say. They are curious constantly on the lookout for new perspectives, ideas, and ways of seeing the world. They are good at connecting dots, linking different quotes, experiences, and concepts into a personal philosophy. They often make great conversationalists, bringing in well-chosen lines that clarify, encourage, or inspire. They show respect for creativity, recognizing how hard it is to express something clearly and beautifully in just a few words. They are natural archivists of insight, preserving ideas that might otherwise be forgotten.

I collect quotes that catch my attention because they express something true, beautiful, or surprising. Over time, they've become a personal library of wisdom I revisit for clarity, comfort, and inspiration. I've kept a running collection of quotes for years. Saving the lines that resonate with me helps me slow down, reflect on what matters, and stay connected to the ideas and voices that shape how I see the world. I revisit these quotes frequently to keep my mind sharp on the lessons I've learned, and to stay in practice with them.

I am someone who pays close attention to ideas and language. Collecting quotes helps me hold onto the insights that resonate with me most. I keep a quote collection because I like to reflect on what I read and hear. Writing quotes down helps me connect more deeply with their meaning and with my own values. I save quotes that speak to me so I can come back to them. The quotes and sayings that I collect and save are a personal library of smart ideas and advice I use for perspective, guidance, comfort, and inspiration. Collecting quotes and reading them often helps me to stay in tune with understanding myself better, and setting necessary boundaries when needed. The lines I keep are a mirror of what I care about, believe, and hope for. My quotes collection is my most read collection of text.

This collection of NO BULLSHIT quotes that I am sharing with you comes from various sources on the internet and books I've collected. I pick and collect the quotes that speak to me the most, the ones that say to me this is an ideology you need to adopt and practice for personal development and growth, and the ones that make me aware of things I may be slacking on that should be fixed for positive gains in life. Some of these I've written myself also.

May these quotes and sayings be an inspiration to you in some way in your own personal achievements. I hope this collection will become one that you too come back to read time and time again, and that you will find something in these sentences to share with others who could use some uplifting.

There are a lot of boom tish, whoomp there it is, and hell yeah advice here. You may find some duplicate quotes, or some that are very similar which basically say the same things, but in different ways.

Enjoy your reading!

1. 80% of success is showing up. - Woody Allen
2. A billionaire’s advice: When you’re not sure, flip a coin, because when the coin is in the air, you realize which option you’re actually hoping for.
3. A bird is not a fish. Don't let people lie to you.

You don't have to confront them unless necessary. A better reaction is to quietly ghost them. Whether or not that is permanent depends on you and the situation.

4. A comfort zone is a beautiful place but nothing ever grows there.

5. A liar will always find a new lie before they tell the truth.

6. A lot of black people hate niggers too. That’s how I know I’m not racist. The truth is the truth.

7. A lot of people stay stuck on their excuses and trick themselves into believing they did their best. Did they? Or was there something else they could have done? I’m not judging and I ask myself this same damn question. At the end of the day though, when you have been forced to separate from people, they don’t realize until it’s too late how hard you rode for them when you could. Some of them may never realize that. You take your love and give it to yourself and you move yourself ahead. Leave them stuck where they were and you continue to grow.

8. A lot of problems come from not putting people in their place the first time they try you. Be aware that you can escalate the situation however and be prepared to handle it. Some asshat people can’t handle being wrong, even when they know they’re wrong.

9. A place for everything. Everything in it’s place. That includes people. Sort it all out! Soon enough you will discover some people need to be pushed back a little. Or a lot.

10. A sign of an intelligent person is their ability to learn from anyone, even those they dislike.

11. A strong life is not built by avoiding pressure. It’s built by learning how to stay steady inside it. Pressure reveals what you’re made of. And also what you need to fix. Both matter.

12. A tree doesn’t compete with the trees around it, it just grows.

13. A tree looks different through all of the seasons, but it is the same tree all year around. Remember everything is temporary.

14. A true friend will tell you the truth, even when it’s hard to hear, or hard to tell.

15. A year from now you’ll wish you would have started today.

16. Accept people as they are, but place them where they belong.

17. Accept people as they are, but place them where they belong. You are the CEO of your life. Hire, fire, and promote accordingly.

18. Accept rejection. Don’t beg. Never chase. Know your worth. Choose Yourself.

19. Accept the past for what it was. Acknowledge the present for what it is. Anticipate the future for what it can become. - Tracy L. McNair

20. Action opens doors.

21. Ain’t funny when the bunny gets the gun.

22. All of mother nature’s creatures are designed to fully flourish before they drop dead.

23. All work and no play truly makes life unbalanced. Sometimes, beyond the deadlines, meetings, responsibilities, and pressure, it is important to relax, laugh, connect and enjoy good moments with great people.

24. All you Christians talking shit about gays, and who likes to belittle others because you don't like something about them, don't forget they get taxed in the USA to support funding for the same things you do, including feeding your loud and fugly ass kids on SNAP/EBT, and free lunch meals. They're also your military, doctors, lawyers, mechanics and so on. You can believe whatever you want to, but you look like a fucking idiot trying to indoctrinate with hate. Please fuck off with it. Man invented and wrote about thousands of gods but only yours is real but has never been proven. None of them have.

25. Allow yourself to shine without the desire to be seen.

26. Although narcissists appear ultra confident, their grandiosity only serves as a mask to hide their fragile self-esteem.

27. Always find time for the things that make you happy to be alive.

28. Always remember someone’s effort is the reflection of their interest in you.

29. Always remember this; Sometimes when things seem like they are falling apart, they might be actually falling into place!

30. ALWAYS remember who showed you hate, and who showed you love. Also learn to tell when those who say they love you the most, may not, and that’s it’s possibly a lie.

31. Always remember, people know exactly what they’re doing.

32. Ambition without action becomes anxiety.

33. An athlete won't judge you for working out. A millionaire won't judge you for starting a business. A musician won't judge you for trying to sing a song. It's always the people going nowhere that have something to say. - unknown

34. And I now know that all those times you visited in the past, you brought your fake ass shit into my home, and I was being played for a fool. You were only there to see what you could take back to talk shit about behind my back.

35. And suddenly I didn’t care to be talked to, texted back, liked, disliked, invited, or talked about. It’s quiet and that is finally enough.

36. Anti-social behavior is a trait of intelligence in a world full of conformists. - Nikola Tesla

37. Any fears, doubts, or worries you have about yourself were learned from the people around you, and from your own temporary failures. They are not the truth.

38. Any time you worry that someone is going to judge you, that is really just you judging yourself.

39. Anyone who has never made a mistake has never tried anything new. - Albert Einstien

41. Appreciate every small win life gives you. These small wins will add up to a great sense of joy.

42. Approach the start of each day with something in mind and end the day with one word - DONE!

43. As bad as it was the things they did to you, it could be much worse, and even possibly a tragedy, if you don't pick yourself up and move on. Your number one responsibility to yourself despite any obstacles has always been to do your best.

44. As long as there's life, there's hope.

45. Ask yourself what true peace to you means. If you find the answer, you have all the guidance you need to find happiness. If you don't find the answer right away, that's fine. Take the time you need to retreat away from other people and responsibilities as much as you can to give yourself time to find clarity. Find a routine that works best for you. Don’t try to confine yourself to other people’s interests or beliefs, as your journey to success is your own to experience.

46. Attention is an investment. What people repeatedly discuss often shapes how they think and live.

47. Average people talk about people, while high performing people talk about ideas.

48. Avoid negative people. They have a problem with every solution.

49. Bad company corrupts good character.

50. Be a creative force.

51. Be as you wish to seem. - Socrates

52. Be careful what you give your energy to. There are people trying to take it from you all day long.

53. Be careful what you tolerate. You are teaching people how to treat you.

54. Be careful who you trust. Salt and sugar look the same.

55. Be carful who you trust. Salt and sugar looks the same.

57. Be grateful for the people that pour wisdom into you. That wisdom didn't come without pain.

58. Be humble, and never think you are better than anyone else. We all leave this world with nothing.

59. Be intentional about the words you receive. If you're exposed to any toxic, icky, or bullying words that might throw you off track, turn off the television, put down your phone, close the document, remove yourself, ignore it, or if you're stuck in the presence of a negative blowhard, drown them out by repeating your mantra over and over in your head.

60. Be kind, but don't let people use you.

61. Be not afraid of going slowly. Be afraid of standing still.

62. Be patient. Sometimes the wait is longer because the blessing is bigger.

63. Be smart enough to ask for advise, but be wise enough to know who to seek it from.

64. Be so private they can't do nothing but assume.

65. Be teachable. You're not always right.

66. Be the reason why people believe in beautiful souls, kind hearts and good energy. Never stop being a good person.

73. Being alone is a power very few can handle.

74. Being disliked by people with ugly energy is divine protection.

75. Being nice without boundaries attracts exploitation. You are giving benefits without making behavior accountable. The other side learns they can receive your patience, forgiveness, attention, and effort without paying the price of respect. Kindness without structure becomes a subsidy for bad behavior.

76. Being ready is a myth. You start. You suck. You figure it out. You get better.

77. Being true to yourself may lead to loneliness, but it’s worth it.

78. Being valuable to a company is useful. Being valuable without the company is power.

79. Believe in yourself, and you will be unstoppable. - Emily Guay

80. Best mental reset I've learned: If your mind is loud - Write. If your mind is empty - Read. If your mind is racing - Walk. If your mind is tired - Sleep. If your mind is sharp - Build. Most problems are just mismatched energy. Get the inputs right, the rest follows.

81. Beware of snakes in the grass. Gotta watch your step!

82. Big dreams need big sacrifices.

83. BITTER TRUTH: No matter how good you are, how nice you are, how kind you are, or how caring you are, if you are in the wrong place, you are never valued and appreciated.

84. Black fatigue is how stupid ass niggers present themselves. You are black because you can't help how you look, and that is how you were born, but you don't have to be a nigger. Stay the fuck away from white people if you're going to act like a nigger. We don't like that shit.

85. Black people act like everyone is supposed to automatically love and accept them as friends or some shit because they’re black. Get the fuck out of here.

86. Blacks hate white people, until white people start taking money away. Away from schools when they move their kids to another one. Away from towns when they find a whiter and brighter neighborhood. Away to their kitchens when they stop going to fast food places. - Inspired by Anthony Cumia - because it’s all true.

87. Bonnet bitches are stupid. And loud. And ignorant.

88. Boundaries are healthy. Establish yours, and enforce them! - DT, surfman

89. Bravely step up and claim your space.

90. Brick by brick. Day by day. A win is a win.

91. By the time the realize your worth, you’ll be worth more.

92. Bye bitch!

93. Cash rules everything around us. The more money you have, the more power you get.

94. Cause change and lead; accept change and survive; resist change and die. - Ray Norda

95. Certain people show who they really are when they are confronted with someone who refuses to be controlled or manipulated. Once you figure this out about them, you don’t ever look at them the same. At that point the whole game changes. You also don’t allow them to occupy the same space in your life that they did before if you give a damn about yourself. Self-respect comes first!

96. Change is painful, but nothing is a painful as staying stuck somewhere you don’t belong.

97. Change. But start slowly, because direction is more important than speed. – Paulo Coelho

98. Changing your habits and your boundaries takes courage, audacity, and a whole lot of self-love.

99. Choose happiness! It can be very difficult to find happiness when things aren’t going right, but it’s important to remember that when things go wrong, these are temporary setbacks. Strive to fix your issues, and do not be afraid to ask someone for help. You have got this.

100. Chud is right. They do act like nig guh guh guh geeeeerrrrrrsss.

101. Circle so small that when my phone rings I know its scammers.

102. Climbing a mountain and building a skyscraper happen step by step and floor by floor, but when you are the one hiking or the one hammering, you don’t really experience much of the progress as it’s happening. You’re in the process of creating it, and much of the ground you gain is fairly invisible to you until you hit an overlook on the trail or finish off a substantial number of floors or stand back when you are done, point at your grand accomplishment, and regale everyone in earshot with endlessly detailed stories about how you did it.

103. Concentrated thoughts produce desired results. – Zig Ziglar

104. Consciously creating and endlessly repeating mantras that are aligned with what you’d like to experience and who you’d like to become is a powerful way to change your life.

105. Consistency is key. Don’t be afraid to start over.

106. Consistency is stronger than intensity. The person who writes one page every day will go further than the one who writes fifty pages once. Small actions repeated over time create real change. You don’t need a perfect plan. You need a routine you can maintain.

107. Consistency is what transforms average into excellence.

108. Constantly saying yes when you would really love to say no is the most famous boundary problem. It’s the way many people try to win love and acceptance, and it is actually a bad habit that can leave you feeling defeated. If there is something you really don’t want to do, you are not in the wrong for feeling that way. Try to see what compromises, if any, can be made with people. If they can’t compromise on a fair solution, maybe you no longer need them.

109. Consume and disperse wisdom about the psychology of people. Get on a journey to learn why people act the way they do, and you will start putting blocks on some of the bullshit they think you’re supposed to put up with. Google, Youtube, and books are your best friends.

110. Control your laziness, and you’ll understand how much success you’ve been avoiding.

111. Conversations shape direction. What you constantly talk about usually reveals what your future is being built around.

112. Correct your mistakes before they become your habit.

118. Cutting people out of my life doesn’t mean I hate. It means I respect myself.

119. Day by day, what you choose, what you think and what you do is who you become.

120. Dear Universe, cancel any ties, contracts, promises, or unspoken bonds that no longer feel healthy or aligned. End connections that feel draining, one-sided, or heavy. I take back my energy from people who ignored my boundaries, used my kindness, or only showed up when it was easy. From this point forward, I give my time, love, and attention only to those who meet me with honesty, respect, and effort.

121. Degree is just a piece of paper. Real education is seen in behavior.

122. Destroy the old you before it destroys you.

123. Detachment isn't cruelty. It is clarity with boundaries. Never feel guilty for setting boundaries away from people who think they control you. - DT, surfman

124. Developing a positive mindset doesn’t make your problems disappear. It’s about better equipping yourself to deal with negative situations and stressors in your life.

126. Discipline is remembering who you said you wanted to be.

127. Distance yourself from the people that you don’t want to become.

128. Do not study average people if you want rare results. Find the few who win in hard conditions. Copy the behavior, not the image.

129. Do people drain you? They fucking drain me too! - DT, surfman

130. Do something today that your future self will thank you for.

131. Do the best you can until you know better. Then when you know better, do better. - Maya Angelou

132. Do the necessary things for your life and wellbeing.

133. Do what you HAVE to do until you can do what you WANT to do!! This is a hard concept sometimes, but very important if you're trying to get ahead.

134. Do you just need the apartment to live in, or do you need to decorate and furnish the fuck out of it until you can’t walk through it?

135. Do you know somebody who is always preaching about how he or she did my best? Did they? Really? Or do you think they could have handled a few things a little differently?

136. Do your best, and trust the process. The harder you work, the luckier you get.

137. Doing something wrong for an extended period of time gives it the impression of being right.

138. Doing what is best for you isn’t going to feel good every time.

139. Don't be among people that gossip about people, be among people that talk about investment. That's the right circle where you grow. Investment doesn't always mean money. It can mean building better habits that can help you, and even others without ever spending a dime. But of course building finances is always good too.

140. Don't believe everything you think. Your brain can make you look stupid.

141. Don't cling to a mistake just because you spent a lot of time making it.

144. Don’t act like a nigger and that white man probably won’t even notice you.

145. Don’t ask me for anything when I’m comfortable and cozy.

146. Don’t attach yourself to people, projects, companies, or organizations. Attach yourself to goals, callings, missions, and purpose.

147. Don’t be weak and show up because you’re lonely. Peace feels better than pretending. I don’t put myself in toxic rooms any more, and I can enjoy my holidays by myself, and still be happy.

148. Don’t come at me with any bullshit calling me a racist because I don’t like the company of black people in general. There are a lot of black people who don’t like black people either. I’ve said this a hundred times before and I’m gonna say it again. I love to listen to quite a few very talented black singers, like Toni Braxton, Whitney Houston, Janet Jackson, Jody Whatley, and other similar artists. I don’t however like to hear, or be around common street niggers.

149. Don’t compare your day 1 with someone else’s day 100.

150. Don’t fall in love with success. Fall in love with the habits that bring success.

151. Don’t forget to imagine the best case scenario, too.

152. Don’t go broke trying to impress broke people.

156. Don’t let yesterday take up too much of today.

157. Don’t limit your challenges. Challenge your limits.

158. Don’t lose track of who you are and what you stand for. Be authentic. Be you. If you want to build something that lasts, it has to be built off of the things you are. Not what you are trying to be.

159. Don’t overshare. Privacy is power.

160. Don’t spend another year doing the things.

161. Don’t strive to be well known. Strive to be worth knowing.

162. Don’t talk about your plans. Finish them. Sharing goals feels good, but it tricks your brain into thinking you’ve already won. Stay quiet. Do the work. Let your results speak for you.

163. Don’t trust anyone because people change anytime without any reason.

164. Don’t trust words. Trust actions.

165. Don’t worry if it’s hard to believe your mantra at first, as long as it excites you. That excitement reminds you that you’re on the right track. Simply decide to believe it until you actually do.

166. Don’t you get it? This very second you could be doing something you love and dream about doing. So do it! NOW!

167. Dream your wildest dreams and you will live a wild life.

168. Dreamers look into the future and see promise. Those who do not dream only see the future. – D. Elder

169. Dreams don’t work unless you do.

170. Each day we must strive for constant and never ending improvement. – Anthony Robbins

171. Each morning is a blank page. Write a good story.

172. Eat more bacon!

173. Effort is a decision, Mindset is a decision, Excellence is a decision, Consistency is a decision. There are no shortcuts to success.

174. Embrace who you are. There is nobody else like you.

175. Energy always finds a direction, just not always a productive one.

176. Energy is energy. It can be spent on noise or on building something that actually grows.

177. Energy is neutral. Direction is what creates outcomes. Attention either compounds wealth or compounds distraction.

178. Energy spent on gossip could build wealth if redirected toward learning investing and growth instead.

179. Enjoying NSFW content does not make you a bad person. Don't ever let anyone get away with telling you that. Grown folks are grown folks, and as adults we have the right to view what we want to as long as it is not illegal content, and as long as we are of legal age. There is a time and place for everything. Some people preach that NSFW content is unhealthy. I call bullshit on that. None of us got here because somebody thought nudity and sex was a bad thing. - DT, surfman

180. Envy & jealousy only tear YOU apart. Shift your focus to gratitude, feel it completely, and watch your life magically change.

181. Even at my worst, I’m fucking incredible.

182. Even if we’d love to make a change, we subconsciously fear that if we stop believing our stories about who we are and what is available to us, the foundation of our realities will disappear, and we will disappear right along with it. A little dramatic, but powerful enough to inspire people to spend entire lifetimes stuck in jobs they hate and abysmal relationships and to generally deny themselves the things and experiences that would have them leaping out of bed in toe-stubbing excitement each morning.

183. Even if you're not "poor", you can't be blowing your money on these expensive groceries and general merchandise prices these days. It's ridiculous. Cut back, cut back, cut back. Get only what you need. I know, easier said than done. Watch for sales!

184. Even white "racists" as some of y'all label them know that not all blacks and people of other races are "bad" people. Some of us actually know some really decent black people, and people of other cultures. The rest of y'all - nigs.

185. Every distraction is a choice.

186. Every human has an expiration date, and deserves to live a happy life. A lot of people absolutely do not have any respect for that in the way that they treat others. Those are the people you need to avoid the most. - DT, surfman

187. Every moment of every day, you have the chance to start over with a clean slate.

188. Every pattern in your life repeats until you learn the lesson. The moment you choose differently, the loop ends and growth begins.

189. Everyone has their own lane. Maintain yours. There is less traffic and no speed limit.

190. Excellence is not being the best. It is doing your best.

191. Excuses make today easy, but make tomorrow hard. Discipline makes today hard, but makes tomorrow easy.

192. Excuses won’t build your future.

193. Expect little from people. Expect a lot from yourself. That’s the secret of a happy life.

194. Failing doesn't turn you into a failure. It's a small part of the bigger picture. It's just a situation. It isn't the outcome of your complete life. It might not even be your fault. Treat it as data, not definition of your identity. Learn from it. Change direction but don't quit.

195. Failing to prepare is the real failure. It’s better to have a little something than nothing at all.

196. Failure does not define you! In life, we are going to take chances and go for something we want. Hopefully, it will work out, and maybe it won’t. And if you don’t achieve your goal, and your project fails, you are not a failure. It just didn’t meet the expectations you had intended. It was an important lesson that you needed to learn that is preparing you for future success. Don’t let a past experience hold you back from going for what you want in the future. You gained weight, and stopped going to the gym for months? It’s okay to pick yourself up, put on your running shoes and try again. Let go of that old story and take another chance, because if you don’t try then you’ve already failed. You are not a failure. Your project didn’t achieve the goal you wanted. It failed, you didn’t. This is an important distinction!

197. Failure is the greatest teacher.

198. Fear is met and destroyed with courage. Again and again when the struggle seems hopeless and all opportunity lost, the one with a little more courage, and a little more effort will have victory. - James F. Bell

199. Fear is temporary. Regret is forever.

200. Fear is temporary. Regret lasts forever. Take the shot.

201. Fear is WHAT IF. Faith is EVEN IF.

202. Fear makes the wolf bigger than he is.

203. Finding yourself exactly where you were meant to be is the greatest feeling when you realize it and you are happy with it.

204. Fire and form start to merge when your intentions align with your emotional state. Growth isn't always easy, but becoming is unavoidable.

205. Five, Ten, Fifteen, or Twenty years from now, you would give anything to be: this exact age, this healthy, and back in this exact moment. Take a second and enjoy it now.

206. Flexing on social media has become cringe. You can post about your real life, but people can quickly tell whether you're actually rich, or trying to look rich. Real wealth whispers. Fake wealth screams. Your vibe tells the whole story.

207. Focus determines where your life eventually goes.

208. Focus on improving yourself, not proving yourself.

209. Focus on yourself. People come and go.

210. Focused conversations usually create focused lives and better outcomes.

211. Folks that like to fuck around with folks can be fucked around with too.

212. Followers come and go. Do not worry about it if you know for certain you are working toward a good end product. The ones who left are the ones that will miss out, while the others benefit from your hard work. - Surf Man

213. For every minute you remain angry, you give up sixty seconds of peace.

214. Forgive yourself for not knowing earlier what only time could teach you.

215. Forgive yourself for the mistakes you made that you cannot erase. Learn from those faults and grow.

216. Forming good habits isn't about being perfect. It is about being aware of who you are, and insisting on steady personal self-improvement toward becoming more of who you want to be.

217. Friends come and go. That is a very harsh reality in life, and a harder truth is that you have to let them.

218. From Joan Didion’s UC Riverside commencement address: I'm not telling you to make the world better, because I don't think that progress is necessarily part of the package. I'm just telling you to live in it. Not just to endure it, not just to suffer it, not just to pass through it, but to live in it.

219. From watching videos lately online at several social platforms, the "natural hair movement" is not working out so well for some folks. Those bonnets aren't doing some any favors either. It's just showing people the stereotypes are real, who to avoid, and really who not to hire. White people should be paying attention the same way a lot of black people are, who are calling it out, because a lot of blacks don’t like niggerish behavior. It reflects on all of them.

220. Fuck excuses. You either want it or you don’t.

221. Fuck the haters!

222. Fuck them. I got dreams to chase.

223. FUCK THIS SHIT is what happens when someone crosses boundaries with you, and FUCK OFF is what you demand them to do for it. But you don't have to confront them and personally tell them to fuck off. There is a very peaceful way to resolve interactions with fake ass people. You can simply and quietly ghost the shit out of them and don't be involved with them again.

224. Fuck your mother. Not an insult. For real though, fuck your mother. You know she was wrong. She knows she was wrong. Everyone also knows she was wrong, but she is good at manipulating people to think she is not at fault for anything. Those people are called flying monkeys. They will defend her to their death no matter how foolish they look. Stay away from her and them. You deserve better.

225. Genius is divine perseverance. Genius I cannot have, but perseverance all can have. - Woodrow Wilson

226. Go inspire someone to do something great. You don’t have to interact directly. Write a book. Start a new blog. Create art. Just do something with the intention of hoping it will make someone else want to inspire someone else.

227. Go off spirit! - Walk Heavy

228. Going out is great, but if you build a home where you love to stay, that is even better.

229. Good and clear boundaries are a gift to everyone. Resentment, exhaustion, guilt, obligation, and passive-aggressiveness are gifts to no one.

230. Good people don't lose people. And people don't walk away from good people. Foolish people will however drive away good people. You didn't lose them. They lost you. They were the one's fucking around. It wasn't you. Fuck em! Go do something fun with your life and forget them. They ain't shit. They just think they are.

231. Good things come to those who hustle while they wait.

232. Gratitude attracts more abundance.

237. Hard work doesn't always guarantee success, but laziness almost certainly guarantees failure.

238. Having bad boundaries doesn't make us bad people. It just makes us regular people who are trying to avoid feeling pain and isolation by behaving in ways that ultimately cause us to feel the very pain and isolation we're trying to avoid. The joke is on us! The good news is that you simply need to become more aware of where and when your boundaries aren't so great, make the conscious decision to upgrade them regardless of how uncomfortable and/or scary it may be, and take back some control of your own life.

239. Having conceived of his purpose, a man should mentally mark out a straight pathway to its achievement, looking neither to the right or to the left, but straight. - James Allen

240. Having faith does not mean you have to believe in anything but yourself! Don't let anybody tell you who, what, or how you're supposed to be based on their beliefs. Some people, including people as close to you as your mother, will try to use god to change something about you, because they don't like something about you, or you never did something they did, that they feel guilty about. Fuck those people. If you believe in god, that is fine, but you need to have your own relationship with god if that's your thing. You don't need to have a relationship with their god the way they claim to. Their version of god will cause you some grief you don't need. - DT, surfman

241. He who dares, wins. - Winston Churchill

242. Healthy boundaries are especially critical when it comes to creating new habits, because in order to stay the course you can't afford to have your time structured by outside forces, your belief swayed by naysayers, or your attention consumed by your (often unconscious) need to control those around you.

243. Hey narcissist, you stupid fuck. It's not someone else's job to butter your ego. Stop treating your kids like shit and enforcing unreal expectations on them, and disrespecting grown folks like you think they aren't paying attention. The world does not revolve around you.

244. Honesty is a very expensive gift. Don’t expect it from cheap people.

245. Hoodies on a black man is not the same as a hoodie on a white man. The common stereotypes do not match. That is why I don’t wear the hood on my hoodie over my head when I’m in certain public places. I’m not trying to get shot over a fucking Arizona Sweet Tea.

246. How are you gonna let your husband run his rattle ass mouth at your kid and they don't legally share the same name? If he wasn't man enough to take the legal and full financial responsibility of establishing his name on the birth certificate when that child was young, he should have kept his damn mouth shut for some of those years if you and him thought there was supposed to be a higher level of respect when that child gets grown. That's bullshit. It's also bullshit to guilt trip somebody over their basic childhood needs that parents are required by law to provide, or otherwise risk going to jail. You cannot hold having to provide food, medical, shoes, and clothes for school, and making sure they get a basic education over anyone's head, and if you do, you're a lousy person, and should have kept your legs closed.

247. How do you form a good habit? You just decide to do it as something you want as a daily improvement to your life, and for the long-run, and make it a part of your regular everyday routine. Make it as non-negotiable and thoughtless as brushing your teeth or getting out of bed. Schedule it in so you don't miss it.

248. How I do it: Self-awareness of myself and what I don't want in my life and that most people are full of shit. I was forced to wake up, and I stay observant. I've learned how to say no without guilt, and that it doesn't make me a bad person to do so. - DT, surfman

249. How much good can one life contain? As much good as you are capable of noticing.

250. How often have your enemies planned their game in a successful way in how they mistreat you? I'm talking about the ones that came up against you, and then lost your trust and loyalty? They do not plan well at all. They take advantage of the fact that you let things slide when you shouldn't. That is why they are always losing people and then acting crazy because somebody is always seeing through them, and walking away from them. Stay the fuck away from lousy scandalous people who do not respect you.

251. How they treated you doesn't define who you are. It defines who they are.

252. I am doing just fine in life, by keeping my inner circle white people only, and dealing with non-whites when it's necessary. To all other white people out there, I advise you to do the same. This doesn't mean you have to hate non-white people, but you need to have pride in your race, and watch out for ALL non-whites. Many of them do not like white people and some of them will turn on you in a minute. It's never all of them, but somewhere it's always one of them.

253. I am not afraid to disappoint or surprise you with get real or get gone boundaries when you start disrespecting me, and I don't feel like being pushed that day. I'm not the one. I never was the one. I was just kind as hell, let shit slide to keep the peace, and put up with some bullshit that I didn't have to from the minute I became an adult, and even during times when I shouldn't have had to when I was younger and had no choice. Then I woke up. The old version of me is gone.

254. I am not as think as you drunk I am!

255. I am not just here to make a living; I am here to make a life. - Helice Bridges

256. I am not telling you so that I can be right. It is because I have already learned from that mistake so you don't have to.

257. I can consider millions of possibilities, but I only have to believe what can be proven if that's how I choose to live. I am not required to confirm anything I may or may not believe. Anyone who can't respect that can fuck off.

258. I cant give you any good ideas, but I can tell you when yours suck.

259. I can't afford to give up. I don't have a backup. I am the backup.

260. I checked another creator's stats. 50,000 subscribers. I had 47. I closed my laptop and went for a walk. On the bridge, I passed a street musician. Maybe five people watching. He played like it was a sold-out stadium. I went home and wrote a post for my 47.

261. I checked my account today and I have zero fucks to give.

262. I did not make it this far in life by caring about fake people's feelings. Be real with me, and I will be real with you. If I can tell or suspect you are being fake, then I don't want anything to do with you. There are millions of things better to do in this world than to keep company with unreal people.

263. I didn't lose respect for people because they changed. I lost it because their actions finally showed me who they really were.

264. I do believe I am special. My Special gift is my vision, my commitment, and my willingness to do whatever it takes. - Anthony Robbins

265. I don't believe it's racist to not want baboonery bullshit imposed on me because the black person who invaded my neighborhood thinks my Whiteness is free access. No white guilt!

266. I don't believe it's racist to not want baboonery bullshit imposed on me because the black person who invaded my neighborhood thinks my whiteness is free access.

267. I don't give a damn what you believe or who you worship. Two people in love is not wrong. Be it a man and woman. A man and man. Or a woman and woman. If your excuse for hate on this topic is over some damn kids, get in your church's backyard, and fix your preachers putting their hands all over kids where they shouldn't be, and stay out of other people's bedroom business. Their life does not effect yours.

268. I don't look at them the same way after they showed me who they really are.

269. I don’t measure me by what someone else thinks.

270. I feel sorry for people who feel the need to ruin somebody else’s life over their pride because they think they’re better than other people. It doesn’t matter how wealthy they become, they always end up losing respect.

271. I gave my heart to myself for a change and grew so much love and self-respect for me.

272. I hate when people start trying to read between the lines of my very direct, very clear statements. There is no hidden meaning. I said exactly what I meant.

273. I have mixed drinks about feelings.

274. I have never invited someone from other races into my home, except the maintenance person who fixes the toilet, hvac, and plumbing. I do however listen to a lot of black people on Youtube who give advice on narcissism. I just don’t trust outsiders in person though.

275. I have seen the graves of those who didn't fight fearing they will die. - Ernesto Che Guevara

276. I have tried 99 times and have failed, but on the 100th time came success. - Albert Einstein

277. I just don’t want that for myself anymore is a valid enough reason to stop anything.

278. I just want to remind you that you are magic and poetry in human form.

279. I know the price of success: dedication, hard work, and an unremitting devotion to the things you want to see happen. - Frank Lloyd Wright

280. I literally have to remind myself all the time that being afraid of things going wrong isn’t the way to make things go right.

281. I love my own company. I’d rather be with myself than waste my time around people that think they’re better than me, or has something against me, or doesn’t like that I have something that they don’t and never will. Loving to be alone is one of the reasons I don’t have a problem staying no contact. - DT, Surfman

282. I love the moments when I realize that I am handling a situation better than a previous version of myself would have.

283. I noticed a growing trend in social media in 2026, especially on X, TikTok, and Youtube. More and more people are growing tired as fuck of niggers. The word nigger is losing meaning other than to identify stereotypical behavior and those who are most likely to exhibit the baboonery bullshit associated with blacks. There are hundreds, possibly thousands, and I’m guessing eventually will be millions of videos online as evidence of the stupid behaviors everyone should be aware of and keep an eye out for to avoid that are exhibited by black people. There are a lot of blacks out there even that don’t like niggers. There is a difference between a black person and a black nigger. People are not giving a damn any more either about being called racist for recognizing accordingly. The irony of that is that now some black people online are actually encouraging white people to be racist toward nigger behavior, and to not put up with it.

284. I overheard a teenager at the library desk ask if she could get a card. The clerk said she’d need proof of address. The girl shook her head. We don’t have one right now. The clerk reached under the counter. Then here’s a temporary card. You can still check out books. Some systems prevent you from stepping through the door to a fulfilling life. Libraries hand you the key.

285. I remember some people from decades ago that I was the best of friends with. I haven't seen them for many years. They changed. They showed me their true colors. Life happened, and we all moved on. That is ok. That is life. Remember the good times you had, and focus on good times with yourself and whoever may be in your circle now.

286. I think one of the best ways to fight niggerology is to simply not hire those ignorant pieces of shit if you can avoid it. Even the nice ones who seem to have somehow racked up some skills are niggers at heart, and we all know niggers are not good for business. The word nigger referring to behavior, and not skin color.

287. I think the narcissists flying monkeys are mostly a joke. That’s why the narcissist uses them. The narcissist knows their flying monkeys will kiss their ass whatever way they ask and come to their defense. If these flying monkeys are your siblings and the narcissists are your parents, and there was an issue with your parents, and if you don’t give a damn what one or both of your parents had to say, then you don’t give a damn what your siblings have to say either. Fuck all of them! They ain’t shit if it takes all of them against you. They’re mad because you said something that was true.

288. I used to walk into a room hoping they like me. I now walk into a room hoping I like them.

289. I want to see what happens if I don’t give up.

290. I would rather be alone than to keep company with somebody who actually doesn’t give a fuck about me.

291. I would rather fail in a cause that would ultimately succeed, than succeed in a cause that would ultimately fail. – Woodrow Wilson

292. I wouldn’t need to manage my anger, if people would control their stupidity!!

293. I'm a firm believer that if you don't do right by people, life will not go right for you. You cannot lie, manipulate, and harm others and expect to live in peace. Just like your body reflects your habits, your life reflects how you treat others. Sooner or later, it will catch up to you and what you put out comes back to you.

294. I've learned that people will forget what you said, people will forget what you did, but people will never forget how you made them feel. – Maya Angelou

295. Ideas are a dime a dozen, they are worthless, but people who put their ideas into action are priceless.

296. If anything in this book offends you, then get the fuck out of it.

297. If black people think that white people are so racist, then why do so many blacks keep trying to be like us? Black people do not have blonde or bronze hair unless by some rare genetic event.

298. If everything around seems dark, look again. You may be the light. - Rumi

299. If I have blocked you, please take it personally; it means I have found you to be irredeemably stupid or evil, or a whole big number of other things.

300. If I just try harder. If I just do more. If I stay quiet. Everything will be better for everyone. Bullshit! Life does not work that way. Drop the losers who make you feel that way. That is not normal.

301. If it comes, let it. It if goes, let it.

302. If it Costs your peace, it’s too Expensive.

303. If it doesn’t push you, it doesn’t grow you.

304. If it scares you and excites you at the same time, that’s your gut telling you to go for it.

305. If it takes less than 5 minutes to do, do it now.

306. If it's not scheduled, it's a wish. Put it on the calendar or stop pretending it's a priority.

307. If it’s not yours, don’t take it. If it’s not right, don’t do it. If it’s not true, don’t say it. If you don’t know, be quiet.

308. If it’s out of your hand, let it out of your mind too.

309. If nobody helps you, do it alone.

310. If people treat you like an option, leave them like a choice.

311. If somebody has ever told you to forget something from the past because that was a long time ago and it's over, and doesn't seem to understand that what they needed to do was take self accountability, admit they were wrong, and apologize, you should avoid that person. That is someone who can never see themselves doing anything wrong to somebody else, or simply doesn't want to admit it, or are ashamed to admit it, and they think they're better than you. They also don't understand that some events can leave a long-lasting bad impression of who they are, despite you never said anything until now. They want you to forgive them and forget whatever it was so that they can continue treating you like they always have. People do not learn from forgiveness, and you do not owe it to them to do that.

312. If someone is trying to bring you down, it means they're already below you.

313. If there's enough money for private jets and golden ballrooms, there's enough money for Social Security, Medicare, and Medicaid!

314. If they aren't choosing you, stop choosing them.

315. If they don't have what you want, don't listen to what they say. - Alex Hormozi

316. If they want to paint you as the villain, then pose.

317. If they were big and bad enough to treat you like shit, and you didn't do anything wrong, let them be big and bad enough to live without you for the rest of their life. Do not let people play games with your happiness.

318. If this economy is not teaching you to stop being brand loyal so much, you are not paying attention. You need to be shopping around!

319. If we are to achieve results never before accomplished, we must expect to employ methods never before attempted. - Francis Bacon

320. If what it takes to know a parent, or anybody in general, is living in caution of being punished in some way at any age for voicing your opinion and unhappiness about something they did, being kicked out of your home for it if you were tied to them that way, being constantly belittled in some way throughout your entire life by them, and made to feel like you really don’t matter, and you’re just some form of entertainment to them because without that they ain’t shit, they may not be good people to keep up with. We give people the benefit of the doubt too much!

321. If you are an introvert, blogging is a great way to reach out without going out. Try it. Become nerdy as hell in your own space and start writing. Share things you know that can help people. There is something very satisfying about owning your own website space on the internet. These days you can do it with just a small laptop, a tablet, or even your phone.

322. If you are an ocean, stay an ocean. Do not become a lake just because some people cannot swim in your depths.

323. If you are brave enough to say goodbye, life will reward you with a new hello.

324. If you are impatient, life will always be harder. Patience can do wonders.

325. If you are never alone, you cannot know yourself. - Paulo Coelho

326. If you are not already, you need to get sick and tired of fake ass people and remove them from your life as quickly as you can.

327. If you are old, and are reaching, or have reached the point where you could literally be dead any minute, and you like playing games with people's lives, and have done so in subtle or not so subtle ways for years, and even decades, or you demand some absurd level of respect that you shouldn't get over how you act, then you need to go ahead and be dead. And hurry up.

328. If you are one of my siblings, and I for some reason have been showed your mama or daddy (and mine) ain’t shit by how they act, and you’re defending them for something they did that didn’t settle well with me, because they really don’t have any defense other than asking you to kiss their ass and do that for them as a cover up, and you don’t know how to mind your own damn business, and it has a negative effect on my life, then I have decided you ain’t shit either because that is all narcissists and flying monkeys deserve.

329. If you are tired, then do it tired.

330. If you are too afraid to take risks due to the fear of failure, be aware that you might die at any given moment, and your failure might be simply not trying.

331. If you can control your mind, you can change your life.

332. If you can't be good, be good at it.

333. If you can’t do great things, do small things in a great way. - Napolean Hill

334. If you can’t explain it simply, you don’t understand it well enough. - Albert Einstein

335. If you can’t stop thinking about it, don’t stop working for it.

336. If you dare to question the narcissist, they may call you crazy. If they can’t control you, they’ll seek to control how others see you. There is no better way than to dismiss your point than saying you’re crazy.

337. If you disturb my peace, I’m out.

338. If you don't like the N word, then don't act like one. That word no longer has anything to do with slavery like some of y'all stay stuck on, especially some of you dumb bonnet bitches. Some of y'all think that word was supposed to end with slavery, but you yourself use it in your bullshit music and every day language. But a white person who noticed how you act is wrong for saying it. In modern times, it's not about how you look. It's about how you and the huge majority of those who resemble you act.

So no they're not wrong for saying it. You're just mad they recognize you as the stereotype and they're not scared to say it. "Racist" doesn't mean what you want it to mean any more. White people are growing past that ignorant shit. This one has. A lot of blacks don't even like blacks based on how y'all act.

339. If you don’t control your mind, someone else will.

340. If you don’t control your time, you don’t control your life.

341. If you don’t risk anything you risk even more.

342. If you don’t sacrifice for your goals, your goals become the sacrifice.

343. If you encounter someone who plays a victim because you called them out on their bullshit, and they won’t take accountability and apologize for the way they treat you, remove them from your life. It doesn’t matter if it’s your mother (especially your mother), a sibling, or a friend. You deserve the same respect they demand. Are you grown, paying your own bills, trying not to ask for help unless necessary? Then yeah, you demand respect too! And if they can’t, fuck them!

344. If you focus on the hurt, you will continue to suffer. If you focus on the lesson, you will continue to grow.

345. If you get tired, learn to rest, not quit.

346. If you have a burning desire and a plan to take action, there is absolutely nothing you cannot achieve. - Thomas J. Vilord

347. If you have a mother who is always talking shit about other family members behind their back to you, that is shady as fuck, and you can rest assured that she does the same thing with them about you. Limit your conversations with her, and don’t tell her shit about your real business in life. All she will do with it is use the information to judge you and go tell about you, so that they can all get in on what you are doing. Eventually she will end up causing some problems that you don't need. This doesn't apply strictly to your mother. It could be anyone in your family who is like that, and if there is a group in your family who seem to congregate with specifically the same family members all the time more than they do with you, then definitely don't tell your business too much. In fact, move to another town or state away from them if you can and limit what you tell on the phone if you talk to them at all on it.

348. If you have a passion for something and never quit, you can't fail. If you're stuck in some job you don't love because you're afraid, then, please, trust yourself enough to follow your dreams. The only way you'll ever truly fail is if you give up. If something doesn't work, adjust your approach. If your fitness routine doesn't bring the results you want, adjust it. If that doesn't work, adjust, adjust, adjust. If you're passionate about something, never stop. If you give up, if you don't follow your passion, it's a disservice to yourself and everyone around you. Remember that. Believe that with every part of your being.

349. If you have a religious ass retard for a mother, my heart truly hurts for you, and I hope the sooner for you that you can get away to make your own decisions.

350. If you have the ability to love, love yourself first.

351. If you have to hurt other people in order to feel powerful, you are an extremely weak individual. - Bobby J. Mattingly

352. If you know someone who has been divorced three times or more, and swears none of it was his or her fault, trust that there is something seriously wrong with that person. Nobody fails marriage that many times and not be sick in the head in some way. - DT, surfman

353. If you know someone who is or was a straight up piece of shit, do everything you can in your power every day to be a better person than he or she was.

354. If you like to call people racists, you might be anti-white.

355. If you only walk on sunny day, you will never reach your destination.

356. If you quit, your future becomes predictable. If you stay in the game, you either get what you want or you get the lesson you need. Both are a win.

357. If you say you're gonna do something, then do it. Stop talking about it. The best approach is to keep it quiet and show the product when you're finished with it.

358. If you stay ready, you don't have to get ready.

359. If you think you can, or if you think you can't, either way you are right. - Anthony Robbins

360. If you want to feel rich, just count the things you have that money can't buy.

361. If you're brave enough to say goodbye, life will reward you with a new hello.

362. If you're serious about changing your life, you'll find a way. If not, you'll find an excuse. - Jen Sincero

363. Ignoring red flags and signs that somebody is being shady with you is not showing respect to yourself. There is a difference between tolerance and letting a piece of shit run you over. I get it though that sometimes you may be in a situation where you have no choice. You should strive to get rid of that person as fast as possible however. At the end of the day, you are the one who is responsible for your happiness.

364. Imagination rules the world. - Napoleon Bonapart

365. In 2026, slavery was abolished 161 years ago in 1865 and referenced as beginning 407 years ago in 1619. This means if your ancestors owned slaves, they would have had to do so at a range of 407 to 161 years ago. Did you know any of your ancestors from these time periods? Have you ever met them? I'm betting the odds are you never have since I don't know of anyone living for that long since then. So why are some of these black boogers in existence today trying to hold white people accountable for people from the past that none of us know? Make it make sense because it don't. We may be their descendants, but we are not responsible for what they did, and if you are feeling some kind of guilt through peer pressure, you need to stop that shit right now. You are hanging out with the wrong type of people, or consuming some fucked up type of propaganda designed to make you hate yourself. Fuck blacks and their white guilt bullshit.

366. In a nutshell, it comes down to guarding your heart.

367. In case you needed the reminder: yes the fuck you can!

368. In every problem there is a hidden treasure inside. It's your job to find it.

369. In every single moment there is an infinite number of ideas, sights, sounds, smells, opinions, and opportunities swirling around us. What we choose to focus our attention on, and how we choose to think and speak about it is based on the reality we're participating in at the moment.

370. In life, the only two things you can control are your effort and your attitude. Everything else is not up to you. - S. Mcnutt

371. In life, you can blame a lot of people and wallow in self-pity, or you can pick yourself up and say this is my life and I'm going to take responsibility for it. Your life. Your responsibility.

372. In my lifetime I've worked with enough blacks in different environments including the military to know 98% of blacks are low hype, and not worth a fuck, including some I've hired and fired.

373. In the end, the grass is always greener where you water it. The question is, do you ever feel like you've been watering someone else's lawn?

374. Instead of worrying about what you can't control, shift your energy toward what you can create.

375. Intelligent people are harder to impress. They read intentions, not gestures.

376. Invest in your future.

377. Is your conscience clear today?

378. It doesn’t get easier. You just get stronger.

379. It doesn’t matter what you are thinking, or what fear you have, if you just do it! Action is the only thing that matters. I can see that at the end of my life, I am not going to look back and say, I wish I had taken more action. – Diana von Welanetz Wentworth

380. It is a heavy burden, and costs too much from your existence to allow unsafe people with unsafe energy to surround you. Unsafe meaning they love to play mind games. They will mentally destroy you, and not give a damn that they did. Build on privacy, self-care, and having the self-respect for yourself that they don't give you.

381. It is at least one of you out there that is about to be up shit creek without a paddle, and nobody to hear it and nobody to care. You are running out of people that may put up with your smartass bullshit. Your mama is about to be dead, and if your wife isn't a complete imbecile to kiss your ass, you are done. A funny thing about those tables, is those tables can be turned. Do not come looking for me when you need a place to stay.

382. It is better to do something than to do nothing while waiting to do everything.

383. It is disturbing that many children are placed in roles by their parents to be care providers of their guardians emotions. Parents who lash out excessively towards their kids need to seek professional help. There is a difference between raising kids, and simply being a fucking asshole.

384. It is never too late to rebrand yourself, and there is no limit to how many times you can do that.

385. It is not anti-social to enjoy being alone. You can still be social at times, and go back to being at peace by yourself anytime you want without feeling like a social outcast. The way to do that is to fall in love with making yourself happy before everyone else. - DT, surfman

386. It is not that you don't care. It is exactly that you will not tolerate anything less than the respect that others demand from you.

387. It is not the similarities that make us the same. It is the differences that make us different.

388. It is the mind that makes good or ill. That which makes us happy or sad; rich or poor. - Edmund Spencer

389. It really sucks that you were made to have those memories with people who turned out not to give any flying fuck about you, but at least you learned who they are.

390. It takes Discipline, Routine, Education, Action, and Mentality to turn DREAMS into REALITY.

391. It turns out that I wasn’t defective or crazy. I was just responding and reacting to abuse that was disguised as love.

392. It's never too late to start over, never too late to be happy.

393. It's not racist to recognize and try to stay the hell away from stereotypical people.

394. It's not that I don't give a fuck. It's that I REALLY DON'T GIVE A FUCK, and there is a difference.

395. It’s a big difference in recognizing a nigger just because he’s black, and recognizing one simply because he was acting like he wanted to be seen that way.

396. It’s a decision that can hurt sometimes. Decide that you would rather be happy than right (and you are right - or you wouldn’t have brought it up), and get the fuck away from dickhead people. Then stay away from them. Make them live without you, and you do something fun in life for you.

397. It’s a funny thing about life; if you refuse to accept anything but the best, you often get it. – W. Somerset Manghan

398. It’s a sad truth that some people have shitty parents in their adult lives, which corresponds to shitty behavior from their parents when they were children. I’m not talking about the basic things that parents are required to provide that keeps them from going to jail such as nutrition, clothing, shoes, basic education, medical, etc. I’m referring to narcissistic dysfunctional brain bullshit a lot of parents, especially religious parents, possess and impose on their kids.

399. It’s going to happen because I’m going to make it happen.

400. It’s hard to turn the page when you know someone won’t be in the next chapter, but the story must go on. – Thomas Wilder

401. It’s more than OK to ignore the newest trends, to get items second hand, to not upgrade your phone, drive an older model car, to downsize your home. It’s more than OK to choose a simple life.

402. It’s necessary to regularly reevaluate your life and adjust your course to stay aligned with your goals. Cheers to reevaluation and progress!

403. It’s never on your bingo card for that day is it? Usually not. Surprises happen. But you have to stay focused on things that matter.

404. It’s not hard. It’s just new.

405. It’s not the stupidity that gets me with some people. It’s the confidence behind the stupidity.

406. It’s not whether you get knocked down; it’s whether you get back up. – Vince Lombardi

407. It’s on you to get you where you want to be.

408. It’s so rare to find genuine people with good intentions these days, but it’s absolutely beautiful when you do.

409. It’s time to go ghost and fix everything.

410. It’s you vs you.

411. I’ve learned the best way to end something is to let it starve. No response, no action, no altercations, just don’t feed it. That’s where the true power lies.

412. Just because it’s not happening when you expect it to, doesn’t mean it will never happen.

413. Just get away from them. – Scott Adams (June 8th, 1957 – January 13th, 2026 – 68 years), Dilbert comics artist. Editor’s note: In case you’re not familiar with the reference, it was about niggers. Stay the fuck away from niggers as much as you can. I don’t give a fuck who thinks these statements are racist. I agree with Scott Adams, and I know as a content curator that hundreds of thousands, and possibly even millions across the United States are on the same page. White people need to get racist, and stop giving a damn about being called racist, and stop putting up with black people’s bullshit. Blacks are racists too, and many worse than any other race. Even some black people are tired of nigger shit, and there are some big differences between black people, and fucking niggers. Search black fatigue, and scott adams just get away from them on Google and Youtube for more information. Also if these notes offend you, then get the fuck out of my book.

414. Just keep slowly stacking up those small wins. Eventually they will all add up and pay off with interest. Remember the compound effect, and learning curve. As you do it longer, you will become better, more efficient, and more profitable. Just keep chipping away day by day, and never give up!

415. Just make it exist first. You can make it good later.

416. Keep every stone they throw at you. You got castles to build.

417. Keep growing and doing what you need to do in order to evolve and become better.

418. Keep it real!

419. Keep the focus on you.

420. Keep what is important. Forget what is not.

421. Keeping space from a toxic family is a brave act of self-respect.

422. Kindness is free but stupidity costs you everything. Be kind but never be naive.

423. Know what you want and go all out for it.

424. Leaders lead by doing.

425. Learn how to laugh at foolish people when you are in their company without cracking a grin. It's ok to let them ride their high horse if you have to in order to keep the peace. Sometimes you can't just get rid of somebody over their self-righteousness, even though you may want to. Also learn how to avoid them when their company isn't required, or their head gets too big. These practices can help you avoid a lot of dysfunctional bullshit until the time does come that you can permanently go no contact if you wish to.

426. Learn to love staying at home. Thank me later.

427. Learn to react less. When you control your emotions, nobody can manipulate you.

428. Learn to unlove and avoid those who deserve it and watch how much peace comes into your life. It's not always easy at first, but it's worth it if you value peace. The way you unlove someone is by placing higher self-respect over shady treatment you received. Unloving people doesn't mean you hate them. It just means you love yourself enough to not allow them to disrespect or mistreat you.

429. Learn who you are. Unlearn who they told you to be.

430. Learning to not respond to internet trolls is a big adjustment for me, especially if they're on an unverified account. I am trying though. I don't mind pissing trolls off, but I don't want to look like a retard who comes on X and other social media just to instigate or participate in being ridiculous. But you catch me on a day when I really don't care and it's on bitch.

431. Let me check my white privilege and get back to you.

432. Let them die off. If your feelings about a person resonates with that, and you do not feel guilt over it after what they did to you, and how they treated you, then you were never wrong, and have nothing to feel guilty for. They were. Life is short. Don’t waste your time with them.

433. Let them hate. Let them think whatever they want to think. At the end of the day, this is your life. You are the one doing your death at the end, not them. Don’t be a victim of somebody’s hate and ignorance. Leave them, grow yourself, better yourself, build your happiness for yourself while you are here, and don’t let anyone interrupt that along the way.

434. Let white people be alone among white people.

435. Level up your ideas of what’s possible, and to decided to really go for it.

436. Level up!

437. Life and death, energy and peace. If I stop today, it was still worth it. Even the terrible mistakes that I made and would have unmade if I could. The pains that have burned me and scarred my soul, it was worth it, for having been allowed to walk where I’ve walked, which was to hell on earth, heaven on earth, back again, into, under, far in between, through it, in it, and above. - Gia Marie Carangi

438. Life doesn’t always give us what we think we want. Yet the Universe always gives us what we need. It’s funny how that happens. Sometimes, we're so sure about how things are supposed to play out that we fight, kicking and screaming, any deviation of the plan that comes our way. Let go of that attachment. Notice the resistance. The more we resist, the more it persists, and the harder we make it on ourselves. The choices we make and even the thoughts we think all matter greatly and affect the outcome of our existence. There is also another force at work and our role is actually more of a co-creator in our own lives. We all have unique gifts to offer the world and certain passions that lie inside of us wanting to get out. To discover our gifts and rise to our highest selves, it's important to believe that the Universe has a plan for you and you only need to listen to the divine guidance and take inspired action. We're all capable of tapping into the unified field where all knowledge resides, but first, we must truly tap into ourselves. Remember that wants are always less important than what we need.

439. Life goes by fast. Enjoy it. Calm down. It's all funny. - Joan Rivers

440. Life is 10 percent what happens to you, and 90 percent how you take it.

441. Life is 10% what happens to you, and 90% how you react to it.

442. Life is only what we choose to make it.

443. Life is short. Focus from this day forward on making a difference.

444. Life is too short to spend it at war with yourself.

445. Life isn't fair. Get over it.

446. Life isn't about finding yourself. Life is about creating yourself. - George Bernard Shaw

447. Listen to their words but notice their actions.

448. Listen, but don't attach. Care, but don't control. Trust but don't depend. Learn, but don't imitate.

Encourage, but don’t push. Dream, but don’t escape.

449. Live your life by a compass not by a clock.

450. Live your life. People will judge you regardless of what you do.

451. Living a life on purpose is truly where you will find your biggest joy! Do the things you love.

452. Living an awesome life is all about making choices that make your heart sing.

453. Loneliness is the price you pay when you start to improve yourself.

454. Love yourself no matter who you really are.

455. Love yourself! And everybody benefits.

456. Love yourself, and the bluebirds of happiness will be your permanent backup singers.

457. Lying about me won’t change the truth about you.

458. Make two people proud: Your 8 year old self, and your 80 year old self.

459. Making mistakes is part of our growing process. However, feeling guilt and shame can do serious harm and create limiting beliefs that stop us from having what we want truly in life. Choose to forgive yourself so you can be free to love and trust yourself again. Treat yourself with love and compassion, so you can forgive and let go of what you cannot change. I would also like to point out that forgiving someone else for something is an entirely different thing. When it comes to things someone did to me, I am not a very forgiving person. People know what they are doing to others whether they want to admit it or not. Use your best judgement accordingly.

460. Making money online is not about doing everything. It’s about doing one thing consistently until it works. Clarity beats confusion. Focus beats effort.

461. Man is what he believes. - Anton Chekov

462. Many men confuse emotional numbness for peace.

463. Many of us invest time on hacking life. Let’s also be mindful to spend a portion of time actually living and enjoying the life we hack.

464. Many people die at twenty-five and are not buried until they are 75. –Benjamin Franklin

465. Master the graceful exit. From conversations. From parties. From opportunities. This has been wonderful, but I need to go. No elaborate excuses. No fake emergencies. Just clear, kind departure. Most people don’t know how to leave. They stay too long or leave badly. Master the exit.

466. Mastering the powerful, positive mindset that's required to keep upping your habits game is all about staying aware, shifting your focus when you catch yourself wandering down woe is me lane, and consciously thinking thoughts that are aligned with where you want to go and who you want to become.

467. Mind game players need to go jump off of a fucking bridge! - DT, surfman

468. Minding your own business is a way to protect yourself from people who don’t need to know everything about you. This can include both family or mere acquaintances and friends. Keeping a focus on yourself and your goals is one of the most self-loving things you can do for yourself. Be mindful however that there are some people who cannot stand the fact that you have the audacity to keep your business to yourself, and not get into theirs much. These are people who put themselves in a competition that you’re not participating in. They don’t actually give a damn about what you have going on, and have no interests to be involved with you much. They’re extremely nosy in the way that they want to know if you’re struggling, because they need you to struggle so that they can feel above you. They also need you to notice and hype them up when they’re in some success phase of their life, and if you don’t, you become their enemy, and you are probably the type of person who for yourself does not need recognition to feel successful. Fuck them fake ass motherfuckers. Wish them well and keep focusing on you and your business.

469. Mindset can make or break you. No one can destroy iron. But its own rust can destroy it. Similarly, no one can destroy you. But your mindset can limit you. Your thoughts are either your power, or your prison.

470. Mindset matters. Choose like minded people.

471. Mistakes are proof that you are trying.

472. Money never starts an idea; it’s the idea that starts the money. – Mark Victor Hansen

473. Most dramas disappear once you hang around with smarter, more thoughtful people.

474. Most every problem we face is solvable. Many with trivial ease. Most don’t have the stomach for the solutions, though.

475. Most mindset problems are just tired problems. Fix your energy and half your anxiety disappears.

476. Most of us participate in a bit of all boundary failures to some degree, depending on our issues, the circumstances, and who happens to be the lucky navigator of our bad boundaries at the moment. For example, we may say yes to all of the things that our boss asks us to do that are outside our job description, to the point of exhaustion and resentment. We need to be finding a more fulfilling career if our job is causing us grief that way. We may say no to invitations to parties and blind dates to avoid awkwardness and rejection. We need to come to an understanding that it is ok to say no in these cases, and that alternate plans could probably be made to keep everyone happy. We may be too controlling in areas of someone’s life that are none of our business, and we often need to just learn how to mind our own business. It never hurts to ask if we're being too nosy, and we should encourage people to tell us if we are in fact too nosy. Sometimes people don't want to talk about their problems, or they don't want to talk about them with you, and that's fine, and should be respected.

477. Most people aren’t addicted to comfort. They’re addicted to avoiding the moment they have to admit their current life doesn’t match who they know they’re supposed to be.

478. Most people aren’t confused. They know exactly what to do and are just hoping for a version of themselves that doesn’t require courage.

479. Most people aren’t stuck because of life. They’re stuck because of their habits. Change the habits, change everything.

480. Most people do not listen with the intent to understand. The listen with the intent to reply.

481. Most people don't have a money problem. They have an attention problem.

482. Most people fear risk. Rich people fear dependence.

483. Most people would rather be exhausted than accountable. Exhaustion earns sympathy and accountability creates evidence.

484. Most regret isn’t from what people tried and lost. It’s from what they kept delaying while calling it being careful.

485. Mothers love to tell their kids she loves them. If however you notice who she gravitates toward the most, and who she prefers to spend her time with, but seems obsessed with telling you excessively over the phone or on a text message, that she loves you, maybe she does, but also she may be trying to cover up that she really doesn’t give a fuck if she doesn’t exhibit the same interest she shows them to stop by and say hi to you sometimes, but expects you to do it for her. She just wants to seem like a kind and caring person. Do not let your mama play games with you. Statistically she will die before you and you’ll be left with her head games. Some of the best mothers out there are as fake as they are caring.

486. Motivation is like food for the brain. You cannot get enough in one sitting. It needs continual and regular refills. - Peter Davies

487. My DNA stands for DON'T NEED APPROVAL! - DT, surfman

488. My energy does not co-exist well with deception and fake ass people.

489. My home is my place of peace. Don’t bring your bullshit to my peace party.

490. My mama tried to turn me into one of her flying monkeys. Always coming to me with her complaints about how her husband treats her, or she don’t like one of her other kids fucking somebody (who if I remember correctly was underage) in the next bedroom over because her fucked up husband let them do it in place of making them go get their own place if they wanted to be grown, or her other kid can’t keep his hands off of her credit card money to support his daughter and desperately needs me to take over his truck payments before he fucks up their credit because it’s in her husbands name, or she can’t do this or that because of her husband. Lady you had me mixed up with the wrong type of people. I never gave not one goddamn damn about that shit and you wasted my time, but you and your husband wanted to be mad because I asked you to visit sometime before your ass gets too old to move, and because I called your husband a piece of shit for throwing me into a wall when I was around 5. You stayed with that ugly bastard for 50 fucking years putting up with all their shit, and I saved your fucking credit, but I say one damn thing and get my life turned upside down over you and all of them, and I don’t owe you any money, and never dragged anybody I was fucking into your house. You’re a stupid ass, and I’m the wrong one to play offended over and be treated like shit like I was, when you yourself have some history of doing some things.

491. My only competition is my potential.

492. My peace isn't rented. It was created, owned, and maintained by my boundaries.

493. Napoleon Hill said: Desire is the starting point of all achievement. Get clear on what you want and why you want it.

494. Narcissistic mothers are the lamest ass people to know. In their mind, they are never wrong for anything. They're quick to claim "I didn't do anything", and often this is true when their shady ass had something that needed to be done, and be done right. If you ever point something out to them that they did do and that thing doesn't flatter them, they are quick to play a victim to avoid looking at themselves and apologize for it. Apologize meaning they admit they were wrong. Stay the hell away from that idiot and let your siblings deal with her shit if you have any. They're probably kissing her ass anyway because she has them wrapped around her finger, and that is what flying monkeys do. A fact we all have to come to terms with is that statistically she will be dead before you, and you're supposed to be building and maintaining your world, and not trying to keep her ego alive for her entertainment. That is not love. Are you going to suffer for her in your life while she's still around, and possibly prolong the mind-fuckery you could endure long after she's gone? Hell no! Wise up! Life is too short. You do not owe her that, and you need to learn how to unlove her if she can't treat you better, and let her go. Fuck her ego. You do not exist to entertain her and be mistreated. Mother's have to respect their offspring in their adult lives, the same way they want respect.

495. Narcissists are people who have an inflated sense of their own importance, a deep need for attention and admiration, and a lack of empathy. You don't find out until it's too late that they are some scummy ass people in a lot of ways until you start understanding some of the ways you were treated by them is not normal, and not fair to you, but was always constructed to benefit their ego. Sure they may have some kind ways about them, and they do especially in the public eye, but behind closed doors when it is just you and them, they are a whole different type of people hell-bent on controlling you. They have a major problem when you make the decision to put a stop to it, and that can be dangerous to your well being.

496. Narcissists don't like to be called narcissists because once they learn what that means, they know they're basically a piece of shit who doesn't deserve any respect, and that somebody sees through their facade. They have a need to be seen as the greatest gift to mankind when they aren't. They are the type of people who will do the most to ruin your life if they can regardless of any good they may have done in the past if you dare to call out their flaws. The best thing you can do for yourself is to not say anything about their psychological malfunctioning habits, get away from them permanently as soon as possible, and let them die off with that shit because they do not have it in them to accept they could have done anything wrong and apologize for it.

497. Narcissists suck ass! - DT, surfman

498. Never argue with stupid.

499. Never become so thirsty that you drink from every cup presented to you. That's how you get poisoned.

500. Never give someone the opportunity to waste your time twice.

501. Never give up! Failure and rejection are the only first step to succeeding. - Jimmy Valvano

502. Never let yesterday's mistakes steal today's momentum.

503. Never make a permanent decision based on temporary feelings.

504. Never regret a day in your life. Good days give you happiness. Bad days give you experience. The worst days give you lessons. The best days give you memories.

Remember you cannot have the good without the bad.

505. Never regret cutting off toxic people. Your happiness comes first. Become the cutoff king or queen that you need to be.

506. Never regret having a good heart. Good things eventually come back in full.

507. Never relax around blacks. Not even any of them that you don't suspect would ever have any intention to harm you. News reports every day are showing that niggers are not to be trusted. They do not like white people actually regardless what you think.

508. Never relax around blax!

509. Never say you can't do it. Say I haven't done it yet.

510. Never shrink yourself to make others comfortable.

511. Never sleep on the idea that visits you daily, that will be the one to change your life.

512. Never stop learning. If you learn one new thing every day, you will overcome 99% of your competition. - Joe Carlozo

513. Never tolerate disrespect. The more chances you give someone, the less respect they'll start to have for you. They'll begin to ignore the standards that you set because they know another chance will always be given.

514. Never underestimate yourself. Life may test you, but it never gives you a challenge without also giving you the strength, wisdom, or resilience to face it. Keep moving forward. You are stronger than you think, and this new day is another chance to prove it.

515. No man knows how bad he is till he has tried very hard to be good. - C.S. Lewis

516. No matter how far-fetched and stupid your mantra may sound today, you will not give two craps about that when you're enjoying the reality it describes down the road. There is nothing corny about money flowing to you freely and easily when it does.

517. No matter how you feel today, get up, dress up, and show up. I know, sometimes easier said than done.

518. No one can change a person, but a person can be the reason someone changes.

519. No one cares, work harder.

520. No one falls in love faster than someone who needs a place to live!!!

521. No one knows tomorrow, just be careful how you treat people, and be aware when someone isn’t treating you with respect. Life comes with different lessons every day.

522. No one leaves home unless home is the mouth of a shark. - Warson Shire

523. No one will clap for your hard work; everyone will clap for your success.

524. No really, I'm for real. I've been investing in every appliance I need since September 2025, and stocking my freezer with all the "fast food" I could want so that I don't have to go to fast food places any more - because of blacks. I got to the point I hate to see or hear them, and when I walk into a fast food place, I don’t want to interact with black people, nor do I want them touching my damn food. Social media has really opened my eyes to how fucking ignorant a lot of black people are in the ways that they act. In the southern states, and especially as I’ve noticed pretty much anywhere below North Alabama, fast food places hire primarily black people, and I don’t like that shit. I want to see more white people serving my food if I step in these days. The prices for the low quality shrinkflation food are too damn high to put up with blacks because you never know when one of those idiots will flip out over childish shit, and it may not even be one of the employees. It could some random ass black piece of shit from off the street who may decide to act up. Since I agree 100 percent with what Scott Adams said about staying away from blacks, I would rather cook what I want at home. I know who made it, and where it came from. It takes literally 8 minutes to cook some tater tots in the air-fryer, or roughly 5-7 minutes to cook a burger patty on the George Forman grill. It's amazing how fast you can cook a lot of food with some of the appliance technology we have today if you invest in your kitchen. The more I cook at home, the less I see the need to go out for fast food. And it is so peaceful at home. The only fast food I grab any more these days pretty much is pizza once in awhile, and the only reason I can think of to warrant going into other types of fast food places in the future is if I'm on a long road trip which is rare compared to when I was younger. These places that primarily hire blacks can forget my money, and that's any type of business if I can avoid them, and not just the fast food places.

525. No results? Keep working. Bad results? Keep working. Good results? Keep working.

526. No space or time in my life for fake people.

527. No white guilt here.

528. No white guilt today, not tomorrow, and not any other day later.

529. No white guilt! Be proud that you are white.

530. No white guilt. Never!

531. Nobody coming to save you also implies that no one is come to stop you.

532. Nobody gets angrier than someone accused of something they actually did. They are mad that they got caught, not that someone had the audacity to tell them about them.

533. Nobody is born with a choice in how they look, or who they're attracted to. If you're a religious person trying to tell somebody they're wrong to be who they are based on your beliefs, and you think somebody is going to hell because you don't like something about them, and you think you can change them, or that they're supposed to change, based on your choice of beliefs, I ask this question: When did you go to hell and bring back proof of your beliefs? You didn't. So shut the fuck up. You look crazy.

534. Nobody is coming to check whether you lived up to your potential. It's between you and you forever.

535. Nobody just gets up and walks away from their family for no reason, most especially their mother… unless those people including her was not treating that person right. Facts!

536. Nobody talks about how your personality changes as you get older. You stop caring about impressing people. You just want peace. You want rest, balance, and to stay far away from anything or anyone that drains your energy. That is a real luxury in life.

537. Nobody watches you harder than people who doubted you. Give them a good show.

538. Nobody works harder than a person who hates asking people for anything.

539. Nope! I do not fuck around with grown ass toddlers.

540. Normalize labeling your corporate engagement your side job, and your creative projects, including writing, your money maker. respect.

546. Not everything deserves a response. Stop giving too much energy to people who don’t deserve it.

547. Not everything or everyone will meet your expectations. Avoid expecting perfection from imperfect people. Let reality guide your reactions. Lower stress by accepting what you can’t control. Peace begins where expectations end.

548. Nothing changes if you change nothing.

549. Nothing is more empowering than facing the fear that controls you. – Lewis Howes

550. Nothing kills you faster than your own mind. Don’t stress over things that are out of your control.

551. Often you create problems that don’t actually exist because you chose to make something about YOU. Stop making things about you. Some person didn’t text you back. Ok it is what it is. That person just didn’t text. Move on and go do something, and don’t wait for them to reply. You didn’t get approved for an apartment. Ok find another apartment. You can’t walk through your home because there are things all over the place. Ok, that one actually is about you. Declutter and clean your home!

552. Oh sure, you can be on my mind, but that doesn't mean I have to, or even want to speak to you after you showed me who and how you really are.

553. Once I know somebody dislikes me, I start acting worse on purpose. I was told that I was dead to them because I called out some truth. I’ve been dead for almost 3 years, no contact, and not giving a fuck what they’re doing or how they’re living, nor missing a goddamn thing about them. Mistreat the wrong one and see how it goes.

554. Once in a while, imposter syndrome could be hitting us (a bit) and make us doubt ourselves. It’s something many of us have dealt with before while attempting to climb the ladder of success. Somewhere along the way, we might wonder if we deserve what we're achieving and if we're good enough to keep it. So, let's just take a second to thank ourselves and believe in ourselves. Whether you've made it far enough on your journey or you're simply just getting started, know that you wouldn't be able to do what you do without believing in yourself.

555. Once you come up with your mantra, write it down and say it every day, all the time. The power you build in your self-improvement is all in the repetition, and connecting with the feeling of excitement you will get in visualizing who you want to be and becoming that person.

556. Once you expose to people that you operate on another level that they don't, you become a threat. Don't hide. Put them in their place. They already know who they are anyway.

557. Once you fall in love with yourself, their game is over.

558. Once you realize that some shallow people will never see you as somebody to respect, no matter how rich or poor you may be throughout your life, you will develop the understanding that you don't give them any better respect than they give you, if you give them any at all.

559. Once you start healing past traumas and your body comes out of fight or flight mode, your body will crave a lot of rest and silence. Your body finally starts to feel safe in the peace & quiet, and the calm. You aren't lazy. Your body is just catching up on all the years it didn't have this stillness. You deserve this. So you work hard at building yourself up, and then you rest when your body demands it.

560. One gift you have to develop when dealing with some people is the gift of goodbye, and you don't even have to say the word. Just exit, and pursue peace.

561. One minute can change an hour.

562. One of the best decorating tips I was ever given is that when you're out shopping, or online looking for home decor items, is that you buy two of each item. Symmetry is very powerful in a room.

563. One of the hardest things I've learned in life is that it really is that deep. Some of us were conditioned to give too much grace. Some people didn't need more grace from you. They needed their access revoked.

564. One of the healthiest habits to learn: Take nothing personally.

565. One of the most powerful tools for habit transformation is also one of the simplest - the almighty mantra. You will experience whatever you believe. And you will believe whatever you repeatedly tell yourself is true.

566. One of the Premier causes of unnecessary drama is bad boundaries.

567. One of the things I have learnt is that I don't have to settle for less. My boundaries are solid, and so are my standards. I don't require much, but what I deserve is non-negotiable.

568. Only those who risk going to far can possibly find out how far one can go.

569. Only what you perceive, you know - the rest is all imagination.

570. Our mind is the most valuable possession that we have. The quality of our lives is, and will be, a reflection of how we develop, train, and utilize this precious gift. - Brian Tracy

577. People can’t ruin what they don’t know about. Privacy and silence is your best defense.

578. People do not decide their futures. They decide their habits, and their habits decide their futures.

579. People don’t defend what is right anymore. They defend who they like.

580. People don’t treat you the way you are. They treat you the way they are.

581. People ebb and flow. Relationships ebb and flow. Money ebbs and flows. Life itself, ebbs and flows. Nothing is stagnant. Nothing stays the same. The more you master how to ebb and flow, the better you become.

582. People need to understand that there are days when you're not in the mood to talk or interact with anyone.

583. People who complain that they don’t have time, have the same 24 hours in the day that you do. You worry about your time and do something productive with it.

584. People who give you rave reviews and compliments don't just notice you for your good deeds. They also notice when you're full of shit.

585. People who have an agenda to ruin my happiness can kiss my ass.

586. People will attack your tone once they realize you speak facts.

587. People will underestimate you as long as you keep letting it happen and tolerate mistreatment. Then they'll play victim when you put a stop to it.

588. People with goals succeed because they know where they are going. - Earl Nightingale

589. Perfect doesn’t exist. Start messy.

590. Personal boundaries define where you end and the outside world begins. Having healthy boundaries means owning your actions, emotions, and needs, as well as not owning the actions, emotions, and needs of others.

591. Praying is pretending. It may make you feel like you are doing something, but you are not doing anything physically to help in any situation. Some people, especially older ones, are brought up to believe that praying is the solution to everything. Do not let yourself be controlled like that.

592. Privacy is a treasure. They can't mess up what they don't know about. Stop telling all of your business. You can tell some things, but don't tell about the things that you are working on to elevate yourself. People, including your family, do not need to know everything about you.

594. Progress is made by being consistent. Not once in awhile, but every day.

595. Progress over perfection.

597. Quiet people are actually talkative around the right people.

598. Radical optimism will change your life.

599. Read something positive every night and listen to something helpful every morning. - Tom Hopkins

600. Readers you can ignore this one: This post-it is a test to see how long it will stay on the wall. I put this on the wall on Tuesday, December 26th, 2023 at 10:40 AM CST. Surprisingly that Post-it never fell off of the wall during the year I lived in my 3rd apartment.

601. Ready is not a feeling. It’s a decision.

602. Real success is when your schedule is designed by intention, not interruptions.

603. Real truth: You never need closure as much as you may want it to move on. What they did to you was the closure. Learn to look more deeply into your situations or relationships to see the value in yourself for who you are without other people.

604. Realizing that calm faces hide heavy storms changes how you treat people.

605. Recognizing patterns and stereotypes with the same damn people is not racist. If you think it is, get the fuck out of my book.

606. Religion is a choice. You can believe what you want to believe, or not participate at all. You can even believe and not participate in a religious manner publicly. The people who try to force indoctrination of religion on someone should be considered a psycho and be avoided. - DT, surfman

607. Religious-ass people are some of the most pushy, disrespectful people on planet Earth. If you are a religious person, good for you. That is your right, and you can believe whatever you want to believe, but you shouldn't go around pushing your beliefs on people. When they indicate they aren't interested, that's your queue to change topics.

608. Remember that everyone who has succeeded has also failed. They just kept trying.

609. Remember that growth will also feel like loss.

610. Remember, being happy doesn't mean you have it all. It simply means you're thankful for all you have.

611. Repeat this to yourself: I don't give a fuck. I don't give a fuck. I don't give a fuck. I don't give a fuck. I don't give a fuck. I don't give a fuck. I don't give a fuck. I don't give a fuck. I don't give a fuck. I don't give a fuck. Now remind yourself that you do actually give a fuck. You give a fuck about too much. Sometimes we need to take a step back from some things, or even a lot of things, and put ourself first for awhile. Never feel guilty for taking any break away from anything or anybody to manage your life. Your happiness comes first. You gotta be happy to bring happiness to others. Right?!

612. Repeat this to yourself: Nigger nigger nigger nigger nigger. Now go look at those people for what they are based on how they act and don’t ever feel guilty for it. It’s not all of them, but it’s always one of those motherfuckers. No white guilt.

613. RESIST the urge to teach anything to anyone unless you’re asked.

614. Respect is not given. It is earned through honesty and trust. If trust is ever lost, you can forget respect.

615. Rich people having NOTHING to do with you being poor.

616. Right now somebody is putting up with some bullshit from somebody else that they really don’t have to unless they are in some tricky situation. If you have the means to avoid disrespect, why are you tolerating it? It’s not love, I know that.

617. Risk is always better than regret.

618. Risk may be scary at first, but every risk I have taken, there has been no other option but to adapt and grow.

620. Rules for peaceful life: Visit who visits you. Call who calls you. Support who supports you. Ignore who ignores you.

621. Run the risk. If it works out, happiness. If not, wisdom.

630. Silence doesn’t mean you have nothing to say. It may mean you realize that no matter what you say, it won’t change anything.

631. Small circle. Private life. Clear mind. Happy soul.

632. Small unimportant things can be forgiven. Other things cannot, and you don’t have to. People will run you over time and time again if you let them, especially if they have done you a favor they think should stop you from voicing your opinions and feelings about things. It doesn’t matter who did a favor, and some people will try to hold a favor over your head to control you. Learn who those people are, and try not to need their help.

633. So many people from your past know a version of you that no longer exists anymore. Growth is beautiful.

634. So many phonies. So few who are the real deal.

635. So, if you are too tired to speak, sit next to me because I, too, am fluent in silence. - R. Arnold

636. Social media is a funny thing, isn't it? We are quick to judge, compare, and make assumptions about others - yet a reel or photo hardly paints the full picture or explains someone's narrative. When you look at the first photo, it's easy to think that some influencers always had great genetics, a fit lifestyle, and had their life together. But it's Far from the truth. Everyone goes through difficulties, and maybe depression, and anxiety. But we're all too ashamed to admit it (and not proud of those things either). However, they are just a chapter of the story we are continuing to write daily. To those of you out there that are going through frustration, heartbreak, job loss, etc - whatever it may be - you are not alone. It was simply thoughts in our heads. There is light at the end of the tunnel if you decide and commit to bettering yourself one day at a time. And fitness can be a huge grounding force for us and spark the biggest changes in ourselves.

637. Social media is a waste of time unless you create something out of it.

638. Social media is for networking and growing your business. It is also for developing a great mind, body, and spirit. Use the resources that are out there. Many are free.

639. Social media made y'all comfortable with disrespecting people and not getting punched in the mouth for it. - Editor's note: I don't believe in violence over words, but some people take keyboard warrior too far over ridiculous things. I'd be lieing if I said I wasn't guilty of it myself at times. It's something to work on.

640. Society may predict, but only I can determine my destiny - Clair Oliver

641. Some blacks need white people to be racist in order to feed their ego, but the majority of white people aren't racist. They just recognize patterns. Blacks need somebody to blame for their failure to work at getting ahead. I've never known a white person who actively wished blacks to fail. I honestly don’t know a single white person who actually gives a damn what blacks are doing. They are too busy working on bettering themselves.

642. Some books are meant to sit on your shelf for a long time until a version of you is ready to confront and read it.

643. Some men give up their designs when they have almost reached their goal, while others obtain a victory by exerting, at the last moment, more vigorous efforts than ever before. - Herodotus

644. Some motherfuckers think you are supposed to supply them with 100 percent unfiltered love and admiration for their presence in your life, but they don’t do the same thing for you. Some of these motherfuckers are your own damn parents. You know the ones that pick and choose their favorite out of your siblings who got the whole damn inheritance. Maybe it was some land. Maybe it was some money. Maybe it was both. Whatever it was, they decided that you and your other sibling(s) weren’t equal and left you out. Maybe these same parents were proud to go visit their favorite offspring, and made excuses why they wouldn’t visit you. These are fake ass people. Fuck them.

645. Some mothers think everybody’s business in the family is everyone else’s business, and they don’t know how to shut their mouth. I wish I had learned this earlier on in life.

646. Some of you Christians need to get real. You are not going to heaven with that bullshit that you're about. God said to love and accept. God did not say to interpret your bullshit man-made religious text in ways that you think defends your bigot ass beliefs. - DT, surfman

647. Some people act like you enjoy asking for help. Nobody that I know of enjoys asking for help honestly. Everybody needs help now and then, but only certain shady individuals will try to hold help over somebody else’s head.

648. Some people are human medicine. You spend an hour with them and everything feels better.

652. Some people are so blinded by pride that they don't see how they push people away from them. When they push you away, take some pride for yourself to stay away.

653. Some people are so unaware of their own behavior that the moment you match their energy, they suddenly start acting like the victim.

654. Some people can pinpoint everything wrong about you, but when it comes to correcting themselves, the pen doesn't work.

655. Some people can’t believe in themselves until someone else believes in them first.

656. Some people come into your life to show you what’s right and what’s wrong.

657. Some people confuse love with tolerance. They think that if you love them, you're supposed to just let them treat you any way they want to today. That is not love. That is 100% disrespect. If you love yourself, you do not tolerate disrespect. Stay away from people like that. You will be much happier.

658. Some people gossip about money and investing. Some people gossip about other people. Same energy. Same effort. Different results.

659. Some people have the audacity to accuse you of disrespecting them, when they don’t even respect themselves. You telling a truth about them translates to disrespect to them. You didn’t disrespect anybody who does not deserve respect. They disrespected you when they didn’t take accountability for how they treated you, and then played offended instead of saying they were wrong. Fuck those loser people. Stay away from them, and let them stay offended.

660. Some people think cussing using the word goddamn is taking the lords name in vain. Wrong! Taking the lords name in vain is when you said god said something that he didn't. Please shut the fuck up. - DT, surfman

661. Some people turn divorce into a business. They use you for what they need, but they don’t really give a fuck about you, and they will drop you in a minute for any reason. If you know someone who has been divorced multiple times, has never claimed any self-responsibility for any of the fallouts, and they have some issues with their immediate family over their attitude, those are several red flags right off the bat telling you to keep your pants zipped up, and to stay the fuck away, but you do you boo. Ignorant people attract ignorant people.

662. Some people use conversations to build wealth, others create drama. Same people, different mindsets.

663. Some people will never understand the damage they caused because they’ve never slowed down long enough to feel how deeply their actions affect other people.

664. Some siblings are more willing to kiss your parents ass than you are. That's just life. Stay away from all of them.

665. Some women think that because they gave birth to somebody that they own and control somebody. Y'all crazy bitches need to step back and learn your place. If you're not paying their bills, you don't tell them shit. And if you are paying a bill and somebody is grown, obviously that person is struggling with something, but you're still dealing with an adult. Watch how you run your mouth. You might be dealing with someone who has to make the decision if you go to a nursing home or be peddled off or left behind with one of their siblings over yours and their bullshit. As it stands today, I'm the one paying my bills, and haha funny funny while y'all was having your meetings and discussions sometime back, I'm not the one trying to make sure you get fed now, and sure as hell not feeling any guilt for it.

666. Somebody got mad at you because you see through them. Let them be mad. Fuck them! - DT, surfman

667. Someone is hoping and wishing for the things you take for granted.

668. Someone replied: I've been following you since the beginning. Don't stop. The people already in the room matter more than the ones who haven't arrived yet.

669. Someone who thinks they control you HATES it when you take your life, your autonomy, and your sanity away from them. They are weak, very mentally sick individuals lost in their own fantasy of authority you let them get away with that they can’t put on you anymore, because you finally chose fuck this shit, and stopped letting them mistreat you.

670. Something I noticed about genuinely happy people: They’re doing less than you. They have fewer goals. Fewer appointments. Fewer obligations. They’ve learned that addition by subtraction is real. While you’re optimizing every minute, they’re sitting on their porch drinking coffee. They’re not lazy. They just figured out that most of what we chase doesn’t matter. Busy is a choice. Peace is too. One looks successful. The other actually is.

682. Sometimes you will never know the value of a moment until it becomes a memory. - Dr. Seuss

683. Sometimes you win. Sometimes you learn.

684. Sometimes your biggest flex isn't money. It's surviving things that almost buried your whole name.

685. Sometimes your circle decreases in size, but increases in value.

686. Source? I went on a walk and the trees told me. Go take a walk if life is crazy right now. It’s a great way to get some excercise, clear your head, and plan ahead.

687. Speak only if you are motivated to do so, and not just because you were spoken to. Often you do not need to give an answer right away, or any answer at all. Do not waste your energy.

688. Standing on your integrity and morals should never come down to letting somebody treat you like trash to keep the peace, and if you think about it, you are not keeping integrity or morals for your own self by not breaking away from those who do not respect you.

689. Start every day off with a grateful heart! Feed your body and mind what it needs to be great.

701. Stop living the same year 75 times and call it life.

702. Stop looking for happiness in the same place you lost it.

703. Stop making excuses to hold on to sentimental things somebody gave you who also did you wrong in some way. That's fucking retarded, unless it has significant money value. If it doesn't, replace it with something else, or just throw it away to gain space.

704. Stop talking about what you want. Start working for it.

705. Stop thinking about it and do it.

706. Stop using your energy to worry. Use your energy to believe, create, love, grow, glow, manifest your dreams, and heal.

who we are. If you are in the habit of getting up and working out every morning, you’re in shape. If you’re in the habit of never doing what you say you’re going to do, you are unreliable. Pay attention to the areas of your life that you’re not so thrilled about, figure out which bad habits helped create them, and trade those habits in for some good ones.

719. Successful people tend to become more successful because they are always thinking about their successes. - Brian Tracy

742. The fear of regression is a powerful tool with the right mindset! Think about this for a second. If you're stuck doing the same things over and over again, where would you be now? For example: if you were stuck with your workouts and nutrition when you first started your fitness training journey, where would you be right now? It can be frustrating to see that you've gone backward or stayed the same because of the saying, I'll do it tomorrow, too many times. We've all been there, but if you focus on that, you'll continue repeating the same pattern. The point isn't to dwell but to use this awareness as fuel to never fall off again for extended periods. Every time you’re about to make an excuse, remember you’re also pushing back progress.

743. The fears we don’t face become our limits.

758. The more you stop trying to control how other people act, the more peace and power you reclaim for yourself. If they want to leave, Let Them. If they don’t support you, Let Them. If they misunderstand you, Let Them. You have no idea how much energy you waste trying to manage, fix, or explain yourself to other people. I know because I used to do the same thing. Let Them show you who they are. And then let me decide what to do next. - Mel Robbins

764. The only thing neccessary for the triumph of evil is for good men to do nothing. - Edmund Burke.

765. The particular part about personal development (be it fitness or any other goal) is that you’re no longer who you already are. It’s about removing and letting go of the bad habits and being open to new beliefs, and perspectives that are you. Sometimes, most of us have forgotten that we are love and light at our true core. We come into this world so pure, with everything we need to live a beautiful, abundant life. And along the way we forget who we really are, so we spend our time, energy, and money trying to become someone, trying to prove our worth to the world. We focus on external validation, rather than internal growth. This is the real work that we need to do if we want to be truly happy. Personal development intends to help us discover what we need to heal and complete, so we can remember that you are enough and here for a purpose. When we are finally able to feel whole, loved, and accepted, we can then help others do the same. To return to who we really are and to live our lives filled with love and light. To unlearn, let go, and undo what our experiences have taught us so we can live our most authentic existence. This is what the planet and humanity need most right now.

768. The phrase be somebody can be a trap. Be aware and careful what you tell or show about yourself to people you notice (primarily your family) who seem to focus around that topic when it comes to you. It’s not always spoken verbally directly on that, but often related in how they speak to you, especially if they have habits of belittling you. Things they say may include You shouldn’t do that, You should follow my religion because I do and it’s how I was raised, Why don’t you get a better job, Why are you saying that truth about me after all I did for you. They don’t see you as somebody, other than a person they think they can control, and no matter what you do, it will never be enough for them. You will never be good enough. You will never be rich enough. You will never drive a car, or obtain living arrangements that impresses them. You are not in competition with them, but there seems to always be some competition among them with you. They don’t like your hobbies, they cannot stand to see you happy, and they don’t like your friends. These are fake ass people, and you need to get rid of them. They don’t actually give a damn about you, but they always have their nose in your business, stalking your social media pages, waiting for you to hit a low point in your life that they can put you down for. That includes your fucking mother for a lot of you. She is probably the worst one. She has probably talked about you behind your back more than anybody while she claims that she loves you. Fuck that shit! Life is too short to put up with things like that.

789. The whole self-development thing – upgrading your habits, pushing yourself outside your comfort zone, expanding your perception of reality, being a badass, isn’t a competition or some socially dictated finish line you cross that means you have finally made it. Nor is the quest to better yourself supposed to make you feel like a loser. All this work is about giving yourself the room, the means, the information the motivation, and the permission to be the most authentic expression of who you truly are.

790. The WIN is coming. Don’t let the WHEN distract you.

791. The WIN is coming. Don’t let the WHEN distract you. I included this statement a 2nd time to add this: While you are going through the WHEN to get to your WIN, do some productive things. Build a project that is centered on your favorite interest(s). It could be plans for a new business, some sort of DIY home decor piece(s), writing a book, keeping a journal, photography, creating music, or something entirely new to you. Whatever it is, stay busy with it and focus on that and YOU. And WHEN you get to your WIN, you'll realize you were winning all along because you loved yourself enough to not let anything or anyone stand in your way, or steal what makes you special.

792. The wrong people always teach you the right life lessons.

793. Their opinions are not your prison. - M.B.M

This is why it is so important that you do not put all of your business out there. When you are posting on social media, never tell where you are going. Only tell where you have been, and offset the timeline. Nobody has to know you went to the lake today for some time out. Post a picture next week instead.

798. There are plenty of people out there in the world living the kind of life you only dream about living, many of whom are far less fabulous and talented than you are.

The key to their success is that they decided to go for it. They stopped listening to their tired old excuses, changed their lousy habits, and got on with getting on.

799. There are so many people out there who need to separate but just can’t leave for some reason. My heart goes out to you because I’ve been there. But fortunately I woke up and starting putting myself first. My hopes for you is that you find the strength, the finances, and the courage to get yourself into a better situation. You deserve to be happy and to not be mistreated.

800. There is a big difference between self-love, and selfish-love. Don't be a narcissist acting in shallow ways toward people. Eventually you will lose. They will get tired of your shit and leave you behind to let you love yourself whatever way you want to, and they will have no need to know how that is going for you while they are moving on to love life avoiding your bullshit.

801. There is always a better way. - Thomas Edison

802. There is no shame in asking for help if you truly need it, however as an adult, you should always strive to solve your problems like an adult if you can. As an adult you should take pride in being as self reliant as possible. Everyone has problems. Everyone needs help now and then. Sometimes however we need to be bigger than our problems.

803. There is no wisdom gained from the second kick of a mule. Doing the same shit over and over and getting the same results is what stupid people do. Don't do that.

804. There is nothing noble in being superior to your fellow man. True nobility is being superior to your former self.

805. There is only one you. What does the world know?

806. There is someone in your life right now who is fake as fuck, and you are letting them do it. Unless you are in a situation such as financial, or other dire needs, then you need to get away from that person or those people. Don't spend your life being used and disrespected.

807. There will always be rats that underestimate the wolves until they are eaten.

808. There's a reason the windshield is bigger than the rear view mirror. We're looking forward.

809. There's still some good in this world Mr. Frodo, and it's worth fighting for. - Sam, LOTR

810. There’s a version of you that exists in the future that already has all that you desire. This version of you does things differently than you do in this present moment. They have different habits, beliefs, and goals. If you were able to speak with your future self and ask them for advice and guidance; What would they tell you to do? What would they tell you to let go of? What would they say that would motivate you to start making changes today? You are your future self, and you already know the answers. The question is, are you ready to listen, let go and take action? The only thing in your way of you having everything you want is you. Want to lose fat and build muscle? Start exercising today, even just for a minute. Want a bigger bank account? Stop spending money on things you don't need and work toward directing your funds to savings. Want to write a book? Start writing. As soon as you decide you’re ready, you can have it all.

811. These are not racist statements. Merely facts.

812. They always feel entitled and in their mind, they are always right. It would kill them to recognize their wrong-doing toward you and say I’m wrong and sorry. They want you to forgive and forget so that they can continue treating you some kind of bullshit way. Fuck that!

813. They call people racist because the truth about them is obvious and they can’t change their skin color to avoid their stereotypes.

814. They can’t fuck with me no mo!

815. They tell you to calm down, but they're the ones causing the drama. have you noticed that yet?

816. They think they’re smart. I think they’re smart too. Smart enough to lose folks that gave a fuck about them because they don’t know how to act or take accountability for their bullshit. They’re smart enough to act out like somebody else is wrong for what they did, but that only lasts so long when smarter people start to see through them like you did. Stay away from them and do something to better your life without them.

817. They will judge you anyway, so keep going.

818. They're mad at you for calling them out, and they told you they don't want you around anymore... but they're stalking your social media accounts like they don't have any real sense because they want to know everything you're doing. The reason they do that is because they are not you, and you got something going on that they never will. They are either jealous, or they can't believe you're making it without their company. They would rather see you always down and out, and begging them for help around every turn in your life, so that they can believe they are heroes that they're not, because they helped with a favor if something went haywire for you, than to see you be successful at something. They want to hold a favor over your head because you needed help. They will even make up a favor you didn't ask for so that they can say after all we did for you blah blah blah. You cannot be copied. Let them keep watching, and stay away from them if you can. - DT, surfman

819. They’re not too busy. You’re just not a priority. Prioritize yourself.

820. This economy is not playing. You better make sure you can afford it before you lay money on it.

822. This is your world. Shape it, or someone else will.

823. This one hurts lol - If the social media algorithm is beating you, it is safe to assume that your writing is helping it.

824. This too shall pass.

825. Those who keep learning will keep rising in life. - Charlie Munger

826. Three types of boundaries failures we make: (1.) Saying YES too much. We say yest to everything because we want to avoid confrontations, disappointing others, appearing selfish, or missing out on the chance to feel needed and important. (2.) Saying NO too much. We say no to everything for fear of being seen, disappointed, disappointing, judged, inadequate, needy, or hurt. We put up a wall to hide behind as opposed to creating a boundary that allows us to full flourish. (3.) Too controlling. We try to control other people, get them to take on our problems, and/or become overly involved with their problems. We seek out those who will enable us and/or become enablers ourselves because we don't want to fix our own lives. We want to feel in control, needed, loved, and not alone.

827. Time patience and perseverance will accomplish all things.

828. Tiny tweaks add up to big changes.

829. To accomplish great things, we must not only act, but also dream, not only plan, but also believe. - Anatole France

830. To be a champion, you have to believe in yourself when nobody else will. - Sugar Ray Robinson

831. To be a leader, you must stand for something, or you will fall for anything.

832. To be a winner, all you have to give is all you have.

833. To better your life without them doesn't mean you have to go your entire life without speaking or interacting with some people, although there may be some that you shouldn’t have anything else to do with at all. It means taking time in your life to focus on you, and only you, to work toward your personal goals. It means that you don’t waste your time with any concern about what others are doing while you are building on you.

834. To change bad habits, we must study the habits of successful role models. - Jack Canfield

835. To every blue hair bigot ass fascist crying liberal out there right now, fuck your stupid lunatic ass, and MAGA MOTHERFUCKER! Trans is not a gender, nor a sexual orientation of any kind, and does not belong with the LGB acronym. Y'all ruined the pride flag with your ignorance.

836. To everyone who set fire to their old life to start over, one day soon, you’ll call it the best thing you ever did.

837. To those who need to read this message: Once you fuck up in life and you find that one person who will not put up with your bullshit anymore, and that person walks away from you, and makes it clear that it is over with you, you will continue to eventually find more people like this because you will never change. Your days of dehumanizing people are numbered, and you are not all that you try to make people believe. Your family knows that, and so do your friends.

838. Today I’m choosing kindness, but I am not to be seen as a pushover. I wouldn’t try me if I were you. I’m just trying to chill, but I will fuck you up.

839. Told a truth and I'm living in it.

840. Told a truth they couldn't handle. Now look at me. Out here being real and shit.

841. Told a truth they couldn't handle. Now look at them. Over there trying to make everyone think I was wrong for something.

842. Tolerance will reach such a level that intelligent people will be banned from thinking so as not to offend the imbeciles. - Fyodor Dostoevsky

843. Totally done can bring so much peace to your life if you stick with that enough. - DT, surfman

844. Toxic people can’t steal your joy unless you let them. Your peace is yours to keep, not theirs to take. They have no authority over it, and no right to it.

845. Training your brain is like training a dog to sit or come or go lie down. It’s all about meaning, simplicity, treats, and repetition. If you are broke, dump the old truth of I can’t afford it, and replace it with money flows to me freely and easily. Come to the understanding that money does flow to some people, and get energized by the challenge to improve yourself and make it happen for you.

846. True power isn't force or retaliation. It's staying grounded even when the world is cracking around you. Anyone can be calm when life is easy. Very few can hold their center in chaos.

847. Trust in yourself. Your perceptions are often far more accurate than you are willing to believe. - Claudia Black

848. Trust that each new day holds untold possibilities.

849. Trust that the universe always delivers right on time.

850. Truth doesn’t scare people. Truth tellers do.

851. Try again. Try again. Keep trying, and do it.

852. Trying to change your life without being self-aware is like using a map to try to get somewhere you have never been before. If you don’t know where you’re starting from, you are not going to get very far.

853. Trying to HUMBLE someone who has already been humbled by LIFE & is Spiritually covered will always BACKFIRE. Spiritually covered not necessarily meaning by religious beliefs.

854. Trying to protect yourself from your fears protects you from experiencing a fully evolved and productive life. It’s ok to be cautious, but sometimes you really just need to take a chance on yourself.

855. Turtles never rush or stress, nor care who’s ahead. They move steadily, step by step, through everything, and always reach their goal. Speed doesn’t define progress, patience does. No need to hurry, just keep going. Slow growth still counts, and peace beats pressure every time.

856. Two topics: PEOPLE and MONEY. Same hours in the day. One conversation adds value. The other doesn't. Choose what you talk about and you've chosen where you'll be in five years. The difference is direction. One drains energy. The other builds knowledge and future value. Shifting that energy from external noise to internal focus unlocks a different kind of return. It's about channeling the effort into understanding what truly moves the needle for your own position. Money talk can build wealth. People talk can burn bridges.

857. Uncommon advice: If you don’t know what to pursue in life right now, persue yourself. Pursue becoming the healthiest, happiest, most healed, most present, most confident version of yourself. Then the right path will reveal itself.

858. Unless you’re a complete asshole with an evil vendetta to wrongfully defame somebody, your truthful thoughts and the things you say about situations or a person are your truths. Never back down from your truths. Were you abused in some way, even if it was a single event, but other things were going on, and you never said anything until you got completely tired of being treated unfairly? Were you further abused once you stood up for yourself by someone, or a group of your peers such as your family? Those motherfuckers showed you they never actually gave a fuck about you. It was a clown show for their benefit and they treated you certain ways to satisfy their ego. Fuck them.

859. Until death, every defeat is psychological.

860. Until it’s done, tell none.

861. Uploading the contents of my heart to the internet.

862. Victory is always possible for the person who refuses to stop fighting. - Napoleon Hill

863. Waiting for the right moment is the slowest form of failure.

864. Wake up early, do whatever it takes to fix your wallet, body, and mind.

865. Walk away. Stay away.

866. Want change in your life? Change your choices.

867. Wants are always less important than needs.

868. Watch out for people who seem to be in some competition with you, and you weren't even trying to beat them. You weren't even ever in a race with them that you knew of. You didn't even give a fuck what they were doing, but they always have to one-up you, or appear trying to. These are weird ass mental lame losers that you should seriously lower your contact with.

869. Water has no effect on fake flowers. Stop pouring yourself on people that don't give a fuck about you.

870. We all have pasts. We all made choices that maybe weren't the best ones. None of us are completely innocent, but we get a fresh start every day to be a better person than we were yesterday.

871. We all tend to sell ourselves short and focus on our failures instead of celebrating our victories. Even people who are successful beyond belief admit to occasionally letting negativity and feelings of inadequacy push them away from their goals. Success is fear, plus your dreams, plus doing it anyway.

872. We are all one paycheck away from disaster... even the rich people. Don't care how much you got in the bank. People with money develop lifestyles that can easily bankrupt them with one glitch, and poorer people are already struggling. In this economy it is so important to be moneywise. No wasteful spending, unless you can actually afford it. Nothing wrong with treating yourself, but bills and groceries come first.

873. We can do anything we want to if we stick to it long enough. - Helen Keller

874. We put a ton of energy into our goals, so we want to be the winners. Be it fitness or financial goals, etc. Yet, it isn't about getting from point A to point B as quickly as possible. It is about laying the foundation for long-term success, but of course, we should try to seek substantial progress towards our goals as well. No matter how difficult life can be, it's important to feel grateful to be where we're at, and remember to move forward on the path toward becoming the best version of yourself.

875. We really can do anything we set our minds to doing, including things we've fake-set our minds to in the past.

876. We suffer more in imagination than in reality.

877. We suffer more often in imagination than in reality. - Seneca

878. We suffer more often in our imagination than we do in reality.

879. We understand that change can be hard and scary. On the other side of the challenges and fear, is the life you are truly meant to live, and sometimes you just have to go through some things. It's part of learning and growing so that you can become who you are supposed to be. Personal development is work that only you can do. And you don't need to do it alone. Do you want to achieve better physical and mental health? Find a community that understands you. Find a coach that can guide you. Ask your friends to support you. In the end, it will all be worth it. And, yes it's the best work we'll ever do.

880. We were all born happy and full of joy. And over the days, months, and years of our lives, this starts to change. Our experiences, our parents, our peers, and society start to shift our perspective on life. We develop expectations and complicate our lives with stuff and things. Eventually, we start to forget that our natural state is happiness and joy because we’re too worried about being enough. One of the most impactful lessons that could be learned is how easy it can be to be happy when you let go of your expectations and just enjoy the present moment. Looking back we could see how the should haves and supposed to’s have robbed us of our happiness. Dwelling on past mistakes or worrying about the unknown future has also stopped us from savoring what is currently happening and enjoying the moment to its fullest. Does this sound familiar? There are many of us dealing with turbulent times and have lost touch with our own happiness and joy. It’s important to remind ourselves that being happy is a choice. This may sound easy and over-simplified, but it’s not. It requires doing the inner work every day to shift your perspective so you can develop a new mindset. One that frees you from anything stopping you from being happy. If happiness is what you truly want then ask yourself what is creating sadness in your life. Is there an expectation that isn’t being met, or are you resentful about the past or fearful of the future? Now might be a great time to take a hiatus from big things to focus on sorting out little things. You already know what you want out of life, even if it's just to have peace and stability. Do what is necessary to achieve your wishes.

881. We were never meant to see with eyes alone.

882. Were you discarded by your entire immediate family because they all got their pussy hurt over truth about what they did to you? Forget those lame ass people. They're going to need you one day, and you are going to remember how they treated you, and you don't have to be the bigger person. You were already the bigger person, and they didn't see it when you were tolerating their bullshit, and probably for years.

883. What a blessing it is to be tired in the pursuit of a challenge of your own choosing.

884. What a person is led by, is what they are full of. So if they are acting sketchy, they have always been that way.

885. What doesn’t matter will take their place, energy, and time if you don’t prioritize your goals. Invest in your goals.

886. What have you done so far this year? Always make sure you’re staying on top of your goals. The only thing that is stopping you from winning is yourself, so pick yourself up and go take the steps to achieve your goals.

887. What if I fall? You might, but what if you fly?

888. What if success isn’t about proving yourself, but honoring yourself? What if it’s not about doing more, but creating more space for the things that bring you peace, joy, and meaning?

889. What is it called when you can’t take it anymore, but you keep taking it? It’s called self-abandonment. You keep choosing everything else over yourself like you are optional in your own life. Sadly sometimes it’s no other choice. It’s endurance. Sometimes it’s toxic and false hope that tells you it will get better when there is no evidence that it will. It’s the belief that toughing it out is the only option, even when the situation is unsustainable. It’s the grind. It’s considering that maybe soon you will catch a lucky break and get away from a situation you think will never come to an end. Then, it’s the realization that you have made it through so much already and that there is always a chance the universe has something better in store for you if you can be patient long enough. It’s also realizing that you will never change anything that you are willing to tolerate. Put yourself first for a change.

890. What is the most important step a man can take? The next one. Always the next one.

891. What makes you beautiful is that you stayed kind even when life was unkind.

892. What people consistently talk about usually reveals the future they’re building toward.

893. What you constantly talk about usually reveals the direction your life is slowly moving toward.

894. What you declare, you will achieve.

895. What you do in private eventually shows in public. The books you read show up in conversations. Your diet shows in your energy. Your discipline shows in your confidence. Your focus shows in your results. You are shaped by what you do when no one’s watching. Prioritize your time. Choose discipline. Choose consistency.

896. What you focus on shapes your outcome. Small talk builds nothing, but focused action builds wealth.

897. What you focus on, you create more of, so it’s important to adjust and strengthen your mind to make sure it’s serving you well.

898. What you seek is seeking you.

899. What you spend your mental energy on quietly becomes your life.

900. What you talk about every day slowly shapes your future. Start having better conversations with better people, and watch how your whole life slowly starts changing too.

901. What you think of me won’t change who I am. You don’t understand my scars, and even less how I got them.

902. What’s meant for you will find you, even if it’s delayed.

903. When do we become successful enough? When do we become somebody? It happens when you decide that you are enough, because you are, and you always have been, but there is always room for improvement. Being somebody doesn't mean meeting someone else's expectations, because honestly, they probably should be minding their own business, unless you ask them for their opinion or advice. Just remember that you don’t have anything to prove to anybody. You just have to be fair and honest with others. It can also help to better yourself to recognize when you can try harder toward your goals and what you want to achieve.

904. When emotions are loud, let silence speak first. Respond when your mind is calm, not when your feelings are in control.

905. When everything feels like an uphill struggle, just think of the view from the top.

906. When everything seems to be going against you, remember that the airplane takes off against the wind, not with it.

907. When everything seems to be going against you, remember that the airplane takes off against the wind, not with it. - DT, surfman

908. When it comes to building great habits and ditching lame ones, your commitment to staying focused on who you are becoming, regardless of where you are and who you are right now is the strongest power you have.

909. When it feels scary to jump, that’s exactly when you jump. Otherwise you end up staying in the same place your whole life.

910. When I’m standing on business, I will cut people off at their knees. I deserve the same respect that others demand, or we can go no contact so that I can do and be what and who I’m supposed to be in peace.

911. When money starts flowing to you freely and easily, don’t waste it.

912. When silence hits harder than revenge.

913. When someone can’t adjust their behavior towards you, adjust your distance away from them!

914. When someone shows you who they are, believe them the first time. - Maya Angelou

915. When will people understand that even in the talking stage, you’re not really single? Too many treat it like a free pass, but I see it differently. If I’m talking to you, you have my focus, my time, energy, and effort go to you. Just because we haven’t made it official doesn’t mean I’m out exploring other options. If someone asks if I’m single, I’ll say, No, I’m already talking to someone, because loyalty starts long before the title does. The label might not be there yet, but the intention matters. I’ll still show up, plan time together, and treat you like you already mean something because you do. The only thing that changes when it becomes official is the name, not the effort. The talking stage is where respect and loyalty are tested the most, and how you move during it says everything about who you are. Anyone can be loyal once there’s a title real character shows before commitment. Because real connection isn’t about rushing labels… it’s about building trust, consistency, and intention from the very beginning.

916. When you are happy with your garden, you don't try to destroy someone else's flowers. Also if you are not happy with your garden, plant new seeds, and give respect to the gardener who is working harder.

917. When you continue to be irritated by someone who refuses to change, you also refuse to change.

918. When you find good people, keep them close.

919. When you push somebody to the limits eventually they are going to let you know and you're not going to like it and they are not going to give a fuck.

920. When you start moving like you respect yourself first, the rest of the world has no choice but to adjust.

921. When you think you can’t, revisit a previous triumph. - Jack Canfield

922. When your idiocy affects me negatively, you need to learn one way or another. I don’t claim to be the brightest person on this planet, but I do know a few things, like how to tell when somebody is full of shit. I don’t like that kind of company.

923. Whenever you think you miss somebody who did you wrong, take a snap back to reality and look at the situation in more depth. You are probably not missing that person, but rather the idea of who you thought that person was or who you wanted that person to be.

924. Where the hell is this white privilege at that I'm supposed to have? I'm out here working my fucking ass off for what I got.

925. Where your fear is, there your task is.

926. Wherever you happen to stand on the God issue, the whole improving your life thing is going to be a lot easier if you have an open mind about it. That doesn't mean having religious conversations with religious people who have no other agenda than to indoctrinate others to round up bigger piles of money in the church offering plate every week, or because they expect you will become a totally different person under religious persecution. In fact I would advise staying the fuck away from religious people as much as I would recommend staying the hell away from blacks. They are all bad behaved people at some level, and double that if they are black AND religious. Sure there's some ratchet ass white folks and other non-blacks out there, but blacks are the worst in any scenario. Interactions with them are not necessary for self-improvement and building your overall happiness. You can simply be a spiritual person meditating your focus on you in this great big universe and not give a damn about someone else's beliefs. Believe in yourself!

927. Whether or not we're aware of it, we're always making choices about setting healthy boundaries, setting unhealthy boundaries, or setting no boundaries at all. Depending on our upbringing, how evolved we are, the situation, and how many oh hell no experiences we've had lately. We either stand up for our needs and the needs of others or we throw ours, and everyone else's needs under the bus.

928. White people actually have to be qualified. Others are given free jobs to fill DEI and H1B quotas.

929. White people collectively do not owe anyone of any race a fucking thing.

930. White people need to be more racist. I don’t mean in the sense of just hating somebody over how they look. Nobody can help how they were born. I mean in paying attention to patterns that match the stereotypes and use discernment, not discrimination, accordingly. You know what behaviors can lead to bad outcomes in the work place, public places, and even in social media. And when you recognize the patterns among the majority of a particular culture, you need to also recognize that they all have that in them to some degree, or they may try to defend those that do. It’s best to avoid as much of it as you can. Do not hesitate to avoid and block stereotypical people. You don’t have to put up with their shit.

931. White people, it is never too late to teach your kids about skin color. Make sure you teach them to stay the fuck away from blacks. It is for their protection.

932. Who and what you surround yourself with is what influences you. It’s easier to quit drinking soda if you surround yourself with people who don’t drink it, and if you never keep any in your house. It’s easier to go to the gym if it is just down the street, or better yet, a home gym if you have the funds and space for it. It’s easier to be successful if you hang out with inspiring, successful people. It’s easier to stop watching TV if you don’t own one, or keep it in a closet, or out in the garage.

933. Who you love, you don't necessarily like. - Cissy Houston

934. Why do narcissists always remind you of what they did for you? When someone says, after all I’ve done for you, they are revealing that what they did for you was not for you at all, but for their own need to control you. Their generosity was just a contract with hidden terms of compliance. Breach that contract, and you become a problem.

935. Winners don’t wait for motivation; they create it.

936. Winning doesn’t make you a better person, but being a better person will make you a winner.

937. Winning is not a sometime thing. You don’t win once in awhile. You don’t do things right once in awhile. You do them right all of the time. Winning is a habit. Unfortunately, so is losing. - Vince Lombardi

938. With all due respect, it's never my loss.

939. With each choice you make, you create your life. Your choices write your story.

940. Without ambition, no conquests are made, and no business created. Ambition is the root of all achievement. - James Champy

941. Without the difficult times in your life, you wouldn’t be who you are today. Be grateful for the good and the bad.

942. Word to your mother mthrfkrs. I don't like niggers or white folks either riding my ass on the street. Learn how to drive and stay off my ass. 3 car lengths per every 10 mph you dumb fucking nigs. Every time I make a turn out there, some black jackass is riding my ass, blocking the road, or cutting me off. I would actually love a society where blacks were not allowed to drive honestly. Y'all are fucking stupid.

943. Work hard. Dress good. Eat well. Talk less. Stay humble. Avoid drama. Chase goals.

944. Work on the things poeple can’t take away from you: Your body, skills, mindset, character, knowledge, and your work ethic. This is how you become unstoppable.

945. Worrying is like paying a debt you don’t owe.

946. Worrying is like sitting in a rocking chair. It gives you something to do, but it doesn't get you anywhere.

947. Writing your mantra is all about coming up with specific words that counter your negative beliefs and that bring up positive, meaningful, exciting emotions. Your mantra must really affect you in a deeply moving way or else you will find yourself saying a lot of annoying words over and over that don’t inspire you to go out and make the changes you need to make.

948. Yay for trying, discovering, and utilizing new things that can help boost productivity, because you never know unless you try.

949. Yeah I'm not racist, but I don't like niggerology or hoodassery either.

950. You are a badass. You were one when you came screaming onto this planet, and you are one now. The universe wouldn’t have bothered with you otherwise. You can’t screw up so majorly that your badassery disappears. It is who you are. It’s who you always will be. It’s not up for negotiation.

951. You are at your strongest when you are calm. A wild person with a calm mind can make anything.

952. You are confined only by the walls you build yourself.

953. You are going to disappoint someone. Just make sure it's not you.

954. You are here. So you may as well enjoy your life.

955. You are not a failure. Sometimes things just take time. This includes figuring out what we want and need in our lives. Some people need more time to get to know themselves than others do. Take the time you need. It is your time.

956. You are not lost. You are in the process of remembering who you were before the world told you who to be.

957. You are not responsible for making people understand your choices. Let them be confused.

958. You are not what happened to you. You are how you chose to handle it.

959. You are stronger than you think.

960. You are the only person who can give yourself what you want. - Lewis Howes

961. You are what you do, not what you say you'll do. - Carl Jung

962. You become what you consume. The content you scroll through. The people you listen to. The environments you place yourself in. Your thoughts aren't just yours, they're shaped by everything you allow into your mind. If you're consuming negativity, you'll think negatively.

963. You can be extremely aware of your flaws and still repeat them for years. Knowing something is wrong doesn't automatically stop it. Change needs interruption, not just awareness.

964. You can hold yourself back in fear of what someone may think or say, or you can become who you're supposed to be and shine.

965. You can literally just wake up and decide I'm done being who I've been. You don't need a new year, a rock bottom, or anyone's permission. Change doesn't require the perfect moment. You're not stuck. You're always one decision away from a different life.

966. You can make the right choice, and it have a bad outcome. That doesn't stop the right choice being right.

967. You can mute people in real life too. It's called boundaries.

968. You can only win when your mind is stronger than your emotions.

969. You can't polish a turd. Stay the hell away from shitty people.

970. You cannot be powerful to all without being a joke to some.

971. You cannot control the dark clouds in the sky, but you can always choose to carry an umbrella with you.

972. You can’t control someone who knows how to be alone. They don’t need you. They choose you. That’s power.

973. You can’t even enjoy a Sunday street stroll in your car any more because of blacks. They can’t fucking drive and they are everywhere.

974. You can’t give your life more time. So give your time more life.

975. You can’t go back and change the beginning, but you can start where you are and change the ending.

976. You can’t start the next chapter of your life if you keep re-reading the last one.

977. You didn’t do anything wrong. All you did was GROW, and they got mad.

978. You do not have to love anybody just because they hold a significant title in your life; aunt, baby mama, baby daddy, brother, father, fuck buddy, husband, grandfather, grandmother, mother, sister, uncle, wife - whoever they are - if they do not respect you. You can show kindness for the sake of being a good person, and avoiding a shit-show with these people. But if they are mistreating you in some way, you need to draw a line, set boundaries for those relationships, and start putting distance between you and them, and ultimately if it becomes necessary, walk away from them for good. Become a master of being a no contact person who no longer has any interest in their day to day life, and focus on you. No longer giving a shit is not wrong when they drive you to that.

979. You don't have an anxiety disorder. You just hate that your habits don't align with who you say you are. Show up for yourself even if it isn't caught on camera. You don't need to prove anything to anyone. You just need to show up for yourself and remember that you're worth the effort.

980. You don't have to do everything at once. Just do something.

981. You don't have unlimited time. Each year that passes you lose another year, or that you could have started. You keep saying I'll do xyz when, but when will never come if you continue to prioritize everything else. Don't miss out on the important things in life because you're too busy being busy!

982. You don't need anyone's approval to do you, and be you. You do you and the things that bring you joy. At the end of the day, you are the one that lays your head down to rest. You need to be resting with happiness, and not with trying to please somebody for the wrong reasons. - DT, surfman

983. You don't need more discipline. You need less lieing to yourself about what you can handle.

984. You don’t have to be everyone’s butterfly. Be a bee. Mind your business, make your honey, and sting people when necessary.

985. You don’t have to be extreme. Just be consistent.

986. You don’t have to be great to start, but you have to start to be great. - Zig Ziglar

987. You don’t have to be miserable on the path of getting better.

988. You don’t have to be racist to recognize that something is seriously wrong with the majority of black people. Have you ever really paid attention to them? Try it. I promise you will notice things. Search Youtube for black fatigue if you need help.

989. You don’t have to be religious to believe in, and denounce demons in your life. Put those mofos in thier place.

990. You don’t lose by walking away. You win your peace, confidence and strength back. There is true beauty in walking away completely.

991. You don’t miss that person. You miss who you thought that person was. Fuck that motherfucker. Find something else, or someone else to do.

992. You don’t owe anybody an explanation for anything.

993. You either quit or keep going. The both hurt. Choose wisely.

994. You get what you fight for, not what you wish for.

995. You get what you fight for. Not what you wish for.

996. You get what you tolerate. Don't blame anyone but yourself. It would no longer be a problem if you stopped tolerating it. Feels good knowing you have the power doesn't it?

997. You had a choice to be good today, and yet you chose tomorrow. Sometimes it's like that. Fuck it. Be the asshole you need to be if life is calling for it.

998. You have been assigned this mountain to show others it can be moved.

999. You have power over your mind, not outside events.

1000. You have to be unbothered if you want to heal from the bullshit in your life. Learn how to unlove some people, especially if they show you they don’t deserve it.

1001. You have to be uncomfortable for a while if you truly want the freedom you dream about. Comfort delays growth.

1002. You have to protect your peace because nobody else is going to do that for you.

1003. You keep telling yourself you’re not made at the thing, whatever the thing is, but you are, and that’s ok. Feel what you need to feel.

1004. You love yourself more than you care about fake people and their bullshit. You love yourself over anything period. You have to. How do you love somebody else if you don’t love yourself first?

1005. You make your life hard by always being in your head. Life is simple. Get out of your head, and get into the moment.

1006. You may be disappointed if you fail, but you are doomed if you do not try. - Beverly Sills

1007. You may not be able to cut someone off completely right now who has been disrespecting and mistreating you, but you should strive to limit your interactions with them as much as possible, and eventually get rid of them if they don’t see the error in their ways.

1008. You must change first. You can't control or change people or circumstances, but you can change yourself. When you change, everything around you changes.

1009. You must do the thing you think you cannot do. - Eleanor Roosevelt 1010. You must learn to create with no applause.

1011. You need time for yourself. Take it! - DT, surfman

1012. You need to ensure that you spend your energy in the best positive way. Avoid all forms of negative talks.

1013. You need to get rid of people in your life who throw stones, and hide their hands. That includes your mother if she doesn’t know how to respect you.

1014. You never forget the times someone rushed out to help you, and that if it hadn’t been for them, you may not have made it out of a situation on your own. They didn’t have to do that. They didn’t even have to answer the phone. On the flipside of that coin, when they turn around and do some stupid shit to you though, you don’t forget that either. Help does not give anyone a right to treat you like you are a nobody. Thank them for the help, try to help back when you can, and let them fuck off with their bullshit the rest of the time because that’s what they’re really about.

1015. You never have to be the bigger person. Sometimes somebody will cross you in extremely lame and stupid ways. You do not have to let disrespect slide. Be your own best friend and leave them alone.

1016. You only get one life. Don't spend it as the supporting character in everyone else's story.

1017. You only live once, but if you do it right, once is enough. - Mae West

1018. You see the truth in them, and that scares them. Even if you don't know all the details, or have all the details correct, you know something shady is going on, or was, and they know you caught on to it. Stay away from it all. - DT, surfman 1019. You survived too many storms to be bothered by raindrops.

1020. You want straightforward? A post that is obviously directed at you instead of vague or restrained? You took someone who cared for you and found their weaknesses to exploit as your righteous self centered views won't allow for anything resembling accountability. You toy with someone's mind until you're sure they will chase you when you vanish like a ghost. I know your game. I've been through this same useless shit countless times before. Congratulations on being better than me. On having things figured out in regards to your small shallow minded perception of the life we are all unwilling participants in. None of us asked to be here, nor ever asked to be treated like shit for someone else's gain or judgement. You don’t make me want to chase you. You make me happy that I've grown so used to being alone. Words I never thought I would be typing. Please don’t mistake me for someone who doesn't know when they are being used. And I let you...because there’s nothing left to use. You follow a playbook that I can read from across the field. I'll give your performative false attempts at being a decent human being a less than mediocre review. If you want to hurt me, you should at least put forth the effort into knowing how to. "Good riddance" I believe were your exact words? Indeed. Good riddance.

1021. You will always be a threat to a miserable person when you carry truth about yourself, and them.

1022. You will begin to get healthy again after leaving a narcissist, and the only thing you will feel regarding them years later is sheer embarrassment that you ever even gave such a creepy individual a chance.

1023. You will get what you want, when you stop making excuses on why you don’t have it.

1024. You will never be good enough for everybody, but you will always be the best for someone who really appreciates you.

1025. You will never be ready. Just start.

1026. You will never change anything that you are willing to tolerate.

1027. You're not burned out because you work hard, you're burned out because you keep betraying yourself.

1028. You, and you alone, ARE responsible for giving yourself the respect that others don’t. It’s called self-respect. The way you do that is to set boundaries and DEMAND that others stick to them. Then, and only then can you also give respect to others. Some people think they can treat you any damn way they want to, and you may be the type that lets people get away with things to avoid drama. But you don’t have to. Cause some drama. Piss some people off. If they retaliate and cause your life to get ruined in some way, then you know they were always fake as fuck from the start, and you will never look at them the same way that you did before. That is how you grow and get better in life. And you don’t look back.

1029. Your anxiety isn’t always a disorder. Sometimes it’s your potential screaming at you that this life is too small.

1030. Your biggest enemy is your uncontrolled mind.

1031. Your brain is your bitch.

1032. Your conversation topics predict your bank account.

1033. Your conversations are a preview of your future.

1034. Your dreams minus your doubts equal your true worth.

1035. Your failures do not define you. Your successes and grind to gain more success does.

1036. Your feelings are always valid, your behavior is not. Feel what you feel, BUT you need to be accountable for what you do as a result of those feelings. With that said however, sometimes your reaction is as valid as your feelings. If they don't want a bad reaction, then they shouldn't be shady with you. You can apologize for words, but you should never offer apology for your reaction to their bullshit while taking accountability for it.

1037. Your future is shaped by the habits you repeat, not the goals you set.

1038. Your ideas are like diamonds. Without the refining process, they are just a dirty rock, but by cutting away the impurities, they become priceless. - Paul Kearly 1039. Your intuition is always one step ahead of you. Listen to it.

1040. Your I'll start when life calms down era is the reason life never calms down.

1041. Your life is an occasion, rise to it.

1042. Your nervous system never forgets how someone made you feel. We all have moments with people that define how we characterize them, no matter what tolerance we give them. Go with your instincts and watch out for yourself.

1043. Your next move matters more than your last mistake. Read that again.

1044. Your normal day is someone's dream. So be thankful everyday.

1045. Your old identity served other people's expectations. Your new identity serves your own growth. Because at some point, you realize you can't keep living just to please others, or fit into their version of you. Growth begins when you start choosing yourself, your direction, your mindset, your progress. And that shift changes everything. They will be mad because YOU took control of

YOU away from THEM. Fuck them!

1046. Your self-limiting beliefs might just be the single largest factor separating the best and worst versions of you. Don’t hold yourself back. Always mind your thoughts when you’re alone.

1047. Your sharpest power comes from your mind. Let the mind reveal more openings, not barriers.

1048. Your success is only limited by your desire.

1049. Your time is limited, so don’t waste it living someone else’s life. - Steve Job

1050. Your word is currency. It loses value when actions don’t match.

1051. Your words anchor your reality. So if you talk about how lazy you are, or how much you suck at remembering people’s birthdays, or how you love that cigarette with your coffeee, or how you have no willpower, so it shall be.

1052. You’ll be alone in the most difficult times of your life. These times will make you wise, mature, and fearless.

1053. You’re getting close. That’s why it’s getting tough.

1054. You’re not everything you want to be, yet. But, you’re many things you wanted to be years ago. And what a powerful thing it is to realize that. Keep going.

1055. You’ve made it this far in the week, don’t turn your back on progress over the weekend. So you’ve hit the gym several times Monday - Thursday or Monday - Friday and ate clean the majority of the time. That doesn’t mean the weekend can be a completely free pass if you want to make steady, predictable progress. Yes, the weekends are a break from the routine of the weekdays and should be enjoyed as such, but do so in moderation to make sure you stay in a deficit if your goal is staying fit or fat loss. We see it time and time again when we go overboard on the weekends, only to regret it later.

1056. You’ve proven your strength already. You have survived every single thing you thought you wouldn’t. So give yourself credit.

ABOUT THE SURFMAN.CO OWNER & EDITOR:

David Thrift (that's me!), residing in Southeast Alabama, is a blogger, content creator & curator, and digital zine maker, who has been surfing the internet and sharing content online since 1998. Almost 3 decades!

When I don't have my face glued to my phone, tablet, or laptop gathering resources to share, I enjoy creating digital AI generated art in Dezgo, Dream By Wombo, Grok Imagine, and non-AI BigHugeLabs, Cross-Stitch World, KaleidoscopeLime Pro, and Painnt.

I am a crafter who loves knitting and crocheting, and sometimes jewelry making, or just randomly stringing beads.

I collect buttons, enamel pins, and a few other assorted things I couldn't think of off the top of my head when I was writing, but will update when more info becomes available.

I love shopping - and I need to stop loving shopping!

ALL SURFMAN.CO DIRECTORY AND ZINE PUBLICATIONS:

These are all of the publications I have published since starting Surf Man, and as of the publishing date of this ebook. Note that I am considering the possibility of merging the Surf Man Website Directory, Articles Mix Zine, and Trendy Zine publications into one giant ebook. This could potentially mean publishing of one huge resource PDF weekly. We shall see what happens with that in the future.

1. Articles Mix Zine 001
2. Articles Mix Zine 002
3. Surf Man Website Directory 001
4. Trendy Zine 001
5. Trendy Zine 002
6. Trendy Zine 003
7. Trendy Zine 004
8. Trendy Zine 005
9. Trendy Zine 006

Remember that all of my ebooks and zines are free to download, but I would appreciate donations through the Buy Me A Coffee website to help support this work, the SURFMAN.co website, and my time to collect and share these resources with you. Buy me a coffee at https://buymeacoffee.com/surfman
